Ald. Cunningham hesitated to approve this. "The city has to carry a certain amount of deadwood in the person of some city hall employees, and I suppose we will still have to follow the custom," said he. "But the time comes when the men by reason of age reach their maximum capacity and I question the wisdom of granting increase then."

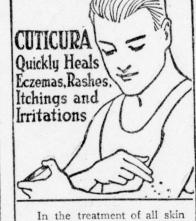

The increase was finally granted unanimously.

"The statement that the United through this winter and in consequence the storms of Alberta sent out a man to reach Bolshevism is an absolute false-road," exclaimed Rice Jones, "and to ay that Mr. Wood is an annexationist sequally ridiculous. Such statements re only to be expected from a man because the storms of the past couple of days have caused no end of damage. It is predicted by some of the older residents of the village that it will only be a few years before the cottages now standing there will have to be removed standing there will have to be removed a Beach at all. Two years ago the cotare only to be expected from a man like Col. Currie, who appears to be the 'chore boy' for the manufacturers' association in the House of Commons. If the manufacturers' think that they are going to hoodwink the public by attempting to appeal to patriotism, they will be badly mistaken."

"We don't have to pay people to go out to talk tariff reduction." said Mr. Higginbotham. "I suppose that is what Col. Currie calls Bolshevism, because it will upset the traditional national policy. A good many things are being changed in Canada and some people at Ottawa will shortly realize this, if they have not already done so."

entirely, for there will be no Orchan Beach at all. Two years ago the cot tages were removed in some instance; twenty and thirty feet farther inland and even then one cottage, owned by E. A. Smith, of this city, was found after a bery heavy storm, overhanging at the edge of the cliff. Several experiments have been made in an effort to prevent the onrush of the waters, but without avail. The heavy looser yesterday was F. W. Farncombe of London, whose cottage was undermined to a considerable depth by the waters.

The Government has been asked on several occasions to place some form of breakwater in this section of the lake, but no action has been taken as yet.
