

TWELVE MILE RACE TO-NIGHT

Shrubbs Meets Simpson in the Armories Starting at 8.45.

The Shrubbs-Simpson twelve-mile race will start at 8.45 to-night in the Armories. Simpson won the race yesterday with two miles in 13.5, and a trip around the Belt Line with Percy Sellen. Air Shrubbs' final work consisted of a walk and a five-mile jaunt in 33.35. The work of laying the clay track commenced in the Armories, was completed yesterday.

"If the track is hard I will beat 1.03.30 in this race," said Shrubbs yesterday. From Toronto I go to Montreal for a 15-mile relay, then on to New York for the Marathon Derby and then back to Toronto for the 15-mile race with Longboat. This twelve is a pinch for me and I think I can beat the field in the Marathon. Dorando is the man I pick for first and I think I'll be second."

There has practically been no betting on the result. Shrubbs says 1.05 will win and he thus thinks Simpson easy. For the purpose of lessening the last minute crowding the arbitration committee last night decided to put on sale at noon to-day at Baxter's, the dollar tickets in the east and west galleries, and the 75 cents general admission tickets for the ground floor. The east and west galleries are perhaps the most desirable view points in the building.
