Will Meddle in Politics So Long as the Devil Does.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 28.—(Special.)—Rev. Dr. Pringle addressed a very large congregation in St. Andrew's Church, Sydney, Sunday evening, on the work of the Presbyterian General Assembly, and gave an explicit statement of the position which he took in the assembly on the question of social and moral reform, saying:

"A great many things have been said about me and my speech on that occasion, and that the preacher has no business to meddle in politics. My answer to that is that I shall meddle in politics as long as the devil meddles in politics. It is the business of Christ's ministers to destroy the works of the devil, whenever they appear. I shall not cease to denounce vile characters in public offices and the vile things done by them. I exaggerated nothing, but stated the plain cold truth."

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY.

WINDSOR, June 28.—The badly decomposed remains of John J. Kenny, aged 22, a former employee of the Detroit River Tunnel, who disappeared last February, were found in the Detroit River this morning. Relatives are sure foul play was committed, as Kenny was last seen alive in company with two strangers at an hotel. He had a small amount of money and a gold watch at that time. To-day the money and watch were missing, although letters were found in the pockets. Coroner Labell has deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Kine while that officer was arresting Foster for disorderly conduct at King-street and Spadina-avenue. Both were fined $10, which they paid to avoid a month in jail. This transpired in police court yesterday morning.

Daniel Fyne will answer a week hence to the charge of attempting to stab George Berry a week ago. Jas. Franklin, charged with theft of money in an east end hotel, where he was employed to attend to the furnace, was remanded for sentence. George Leary was given ten days for theft of tobacco from a Queen-street store.

A SECOND DISAPPOINTMENT.

KINGSTON, June 28.—(Special.)—The desire of the 14th Infantry to celebrate July 4th at Elmira, N.Y., won't be gratified. First the militia department objected. Then permission was given, but the entertainment committee at Elmira have written that on the first refusal of the invitation they called off the military review.

Entertained the Children.

The Young People's Society of Deer Park Presbyterian Church entertained about 50 children from the Children's Aid Society last Saturday to a picnic at Reservoir Park, the Toronto Railway Co. kindly furnishing a special car. After a series of games and races the prizes were given to each child; a book, a kerchief and a pair of suspenders to the boys, and hair ribbons and dolls to the girls.

This is the first occasion when kind friends have taken the children from the Shelter on a summer outing. 287
