The morning broke dark and forbidding and the directors up to nearly the hour were in despair as to the result of the clearing of the streets. The Underwood typewriter was the only one that relieved the situation. Probably more than 2000 people were on the street at the time. The Underwood typewriter is not a trust. Most other typewriters are a trust. The same family. The Underwood family.

port, every department been so well represented. Secretary Keith reported the entries as more than 500 ahead of last year, and a trip thru all the buildings abundantly confirmed the statement. It was a great show and the only regret was that the elements were not in accord with the directors.

A big feature of this year's fair would have been the races, which had attracted no less than forty of the best local and provincial horses, and all of which

Justice Magee Comments.

Justice Magee remarked, "You must expect that in dealing with matters respecting violation of the law, you will not always get the best class of witnesses."

"It seems to me, that the tactics which have been followed by the State's attorneys in this case are entirely unwarranted."

Last night the new central main hall was opened by a musical program, an address by Mayor Pearson, the presence of the Newmarket Band and the presence of the Harmonic Club. The highest class of music was given in the hall at which a number of city and local artists assisted.

George W. H. Patterson, Mayor of York county, Reeve W. D. Annis, Deputy Mayor, W. H. Patterson, Clerk Tom Patterson, and George W. H. Patterson, Mayor of Scarborough, visited the hall.

Newmarket has a board of directors surpassed by none, and all that claim ingenuity could devise to make show a success was done by President J. H. Proctor, and Secretary Pillsbury and their associates.

There was a noticeable absence of a fair element.

WEST TORONTO

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 1.—Rev. Dr. Ilburn, who is home on furlough from Chinese mission fields, will preach the morning at High Park-avenue and the afternoon at the Meadville mission. The service will be held in the afternoon, and the customers receipts at the door of the West end of the church. The number amounted to $7,516.56. During the same month last year the receipts were $1,000.00. The total for the last year of $28,895.63.

Hoskin, Tottenham, has purchased a new house for Dr. Hackett, and will be in the city for a few days. He is from Toronto and will take charge of the work. Dr. Hoskin has changed considerably in his appearance.

Mr. Pritchard was taken to the White House and Fairbairn and Kendra kindly offered to pay him money if they could. He said:

"You shouldn't make such reckless statements," said Mr. DuVernoy, "but I will give you $100.00."

Leary Swears He's Innocent.

Robert Leary himself was next called. He stated that he was a lifelong resident of the city, a former councillor

NORTH TORONTO, Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Within the past 24 hours the Glen rose division of the Metropolitan Police has been called to a number of accidents, all of more or less serious.

About 9 o'clock to-night a south-bound Glen Grove car, approaching the intersection of the Glen and Yonge streets, struck Mrs. Knapp of 88 First Avenue, throwing her into the ditch and seriously injuring her about the neck and side of the head. The driver, a woman, who was standing too close to the tracks, was picked up and carried into the grocery store of Mr. Coote, 1001 Glen street, and taken to St. Vincent's hospital, where he had been summoned. Later Mrs. Knapp was taken to Grace Hospital, where her injuries, while not serious, are of a dangerous nature.
