

custom, it was moved by Mr. Lunn, seconded by Mr. Frothingham, and resolved :

That Messrs. Robert Muir, Edwin Atwater and John Crawford be a committee to confer with gentlemen and obtain their consent to act as collectors to the institution for the year ; Mr. Muir to be convener of the committee.

In consequence of Mr. Frothingham declining to accept the office of Treasurer, a special meeting was held on the 3rd June, and Mr. Charles Alexander was elected Treasurer in his stead.
