FROM PERCY SNODGRASS

St. John Soldier's Letter From Front—A Call For Recruits

Percy Snodgrass, who is at present in France with one of the St. John batteries, in writing to Henry McEachern of the Times composing room staff, says: "A few lines to let you know that I am at last in France doing my little share. We have been in action several times and are handling over 'Fritz' his daily ration, which I truly imagine he does not like. Some days he puts his shells pretty handy to us. We call his shells coal boxes for when they burst they make a very dark smoke. They are a very bad shell to have hit very near you. They sound like an express train coming through the air, anyway, as long as he keeps them as far from us as he has been doing we will not worry."

It is getting kind of cool over here now with lots of rain and mud. I am living in a nice little dugout. We made a fire place in the side of the wall and it makes it very cosy when we come in after a night's fighting. I do the gun laying for our gun crew. So far we are having a fairly good time but we can't tell how soon it may change. Our boys watched an air fight between our airmen and the German airmen yesterday, but we made it too hot for them so they were not long in getting away. They try very often to come across our lines, but they do not meet with much success as we have too many machine guns. I see a few St. John papers now and again, so I see what is going on at home. Some of the St. John boys are getting killed and wounded, but some of us boys have to go, for this is some war. I hope the boys at home are enlisting still for we need them over here yet. This country is called "Sunny N.B." but I fail to see it so far.

Gradually the groups will be organized and will not only be able to use the gymnasium but the shower and swimming tank. There will also be physical culture for the boys in their own hall, and other activities are planned, including occasional "feeds" and programmes.

REV. MR. HAUGHTON TO MONTREAL THIS MONTH

Expected to Start in New Pastorate on Nov. 19 or 26—Tribute From Evangelical Alliance

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton, who recently resigned the pastorate of the local Congregational church after three years of service here, has accepted a call to the Amherst Park church of Montreal. The call was unanimous, every member voting, a fine tribute to the impression which Mr. Haughton must have made on the congregation. As his plans are not quite complete, Mr. Haughton is not sure when he will leave St. John, but expects to occupy his new pulpit on either November 19 or 26 for the first time. During his stay in St. John Mr. Haughton has been active in many phases of civic life and has always been ready to lend his aid in any movement for the betterment of local conditions. He will be greatly missed.

After completing his studies in the theological college in Richmond, Surrey, England, Mr. Haughton accepted a pastorate in South Paris, Me., and remained there for six years. The next eleven years were spent in Massachusetts, in the historic First church of Weymouth, one of the oldest in the United States, and then in the Evangelical Congregational church of Needham. The Amherst Park church of Montreal, to which Mr. Haughton now goes, is a flourishing congregation located in a residential part of the city. It now occupies a fine brick and stone structure which was erected four years ago to keep pace with the growth of the congregation. The church is well organized with a fine Sunday school and a well-organized brotherhood.

In accepting his resignation from office in the local Evangelical Alliance, the secretary has sent Mr. Haughton the following letter:

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton, St. John, N. B.
Dear Sir and Brother:
At the regular meeting of the St. John, N.B., branch of the Evangelical Alliance, your resignation of the office of first vice-president was received and accepted, seeing that your removal from the city makes it impossible for you to continue to serve.
Your earnest, energetic and enthusiastic work during your membership in the alliance has given you a place of honor and recognition among the saints, and they most cordially unite in wishing you success and blessing.
Your presence, counsel and service will be missed in St. John, but we trust that you will find a congenial and fruitful field in your new sphere of labor.
With the best wishes of the members of the Alliance,
Yours sincerely,
J. CHAS. B. APPEL, Secretary.

Q.M.S. FRANK JENNINGS AND BROTHER IN RE-UNION

They Meet in France And Are Fighting Close to One Another—Hears That Thomas Gorman Was Recommended for Commission

Mrs. P. L. Jennings of East St. John received a letter from her son Quarter-master Sergeant Frank X. Jennings, in part as follows:
"Ned (his brother) and I had quite a reunion the other day in a French town which has figured prominently in the news during the last year or so. I can't tell you the name of the place as I might get a court-martial and they are to say the least, uncomfortable things to be hanging around one's head. At all events I located Ned soon after his arrival and was certainly pleased to see him. He is looking well and is now doing his share in 'strafing the Hun' a short distance from where I am writing this. I was up this afternoon to see Tom Gorman's grave. He is buried alongside his fellow battymen, Murray McAdam, who was killed at the same time. I was certainly sorry to hear of his death as were all the boys both of the old 28rd and his own unit. I understand he was recommended for a commission some time ago."
"I see the Soldiers' Comforts Association are already making up Christmas parcels and I hope they won't forget the 21st Battery. We have received quite a few pairs of socks with the St. John branch's tag on them and they are the pick of the lot."
"On the road from — to — yesterday I saw a string of motor ambulances moving toward the front and amongst the lot was one inscribed: 'Presentation by the Children of Nova Scotia, and unconsciously I murmured 'God bless the children of Nova Scotia, and I wondered how many poor fellows it carried safely out of the strife in which they had received their marks of service. I sacrifice had said the same thing. Those little ones whose cents and five cent pieces have put this car into the field are now in the front and they have not only helped the cause of their motherland indirectly, but have directly assisted in making 'more comfortable' many wounded linnies on their way to health and strength. I think the whole nation should join in saying 'God bless the children of Nova Scotia.'"

SITTING ON ROADSIDE; BROTHER RIDES BY
Gunner Charles and Sergeant Arthur Weatherhead Meet in Warland After Two Years
Gunner Charles Weatherhead, writing to his sister, Mrs. T. A. Alexander, 78 Wentworth street, under date of Oct. 22, says in part: "Just a line to let you know I am still alive. I had a big surprise the other day. I was sitting on the road near war land when who do you suppose came walking along but my brother Arthur. I was just on the point of writing to him. He was sitting on a horse and was riding by me. I gave him a call and went up to him. He said he came down to see me but was not sure where I was. We had dinner together at our camp. He looks as fit as a fiddle. I was greatly surprised to see him but still more overjoyed. A lot of the boys here knew him. He said that Major Frank Magee was back with his battery again."
The brother of whom Gunner Charles speaks is Sergeant Arthur Weatherhead, who is with Major Magee's battery and has been in France for two years. It was just two years since the brothers met. Gunner Charles is a member of the old No. 7 siege battery.

HOLY TRINITY CIRCLE SENDING 36 BOXES TO MEN AT THE FRONT

The Red Cross Circle of Holy Trinity Catholic church has been busily engaged during the last few weeks in the preparation of Christmas boxes which the circle will send to each soldier of that parish now overseas. There are thirty-six young men members of this church at the front and it is the intention of the circle to send each man a box so that his Christmas dinner may be made as homelike as possible. Each box weighs seven pounds.

In case St. Nicholas may not call at the trenches these energetic ladies have decided to play the role of Santa Claus. Thirty-six boxes will be sent tomorrow by post. The president of the circle is Mrs. Thomas Fox, who was assisted by a committee consisting of Mrs. Miles E. Agar and Mrs. David Corkery. There have been five men from the parish who have made the supreme sacrifice on the field of battle. The Red Cross circle has been working quietly but effectively all summer and the results are outstanding.

RECRUITING FOR THE ENGINEERS

The Canadian Engineers throughout the province are getting an excellent class of men; the recruiting department is aiming at quality rather than number. This branch of the service affords an excellent opportunity for mechanics and tradesmen. The Engineers will be more and more needed as the fight becomes open warfare.

An officer of this unit must be a graduate of a technical school with three years' practical experience, or must have had seven years' practical experience as an engineer or contractor. The names of the men enlisted during the last week are: Frank E. Brehaut, plumber; Calvin Milton, carpenter; Fred LeBlanc, concrete worker; Artemus Cameron, road builder; James W. Rouse, teamster; William H. Cassidy, millwright. These men are all New Brunswickers. Men desirous of joining should call on Sergeant Major Beattie at the recruiting office in Prince William street.
