DOROTHY'S DIARY

11.

Mrs. Lazarus announced today that she had rented her other spare room to a young man. If she expected any fluttering of he arts on that account, I guess she was disappointed.

Want ads helped us twice today. The paper-hanger was secured and he is working this very minute. Our costumes for the Mah Jong darce were also rented through a want ad.

And as Alice will need a typewriter if she is to go in for short story writing, we're going to advertise for a second-hand machi e.

WHIPPING POST REVIVAL IS NEEDED

Baptist Minister Suggests Means of Securing The Safety of Society.

British United Press.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The revival of the whipping post throughout the country as a deterrent to crime was advocated Sunday by Rev. Chas. Hillman Fountain, Baptist minister, of Plainfield, N. J., at the opening of the west side religious forum.

"If the whipping post could be established it would have a beneficial effect in securing the safety of society," the clergyman said. "If it be said that it is cruel, the answer is that it is more cruel to let these desperadoes go beating up innocent men and women."

Faces Charge Of Trying Suicide

FREDERICTON, July 6 — Mrs. Annie McCarty, colored, wife of William McCarty, appeared in the police court today charged with attempting suicide. Late Sunday night the police were informed by a young colored girl that a woman was heading for the river to drown herself. A patrolman overtook Mrs. McCarty on the concrete wharf at the rear of Phoenix Square and arrested her. She told the police that she was merely trying to frighten her daughter into obeying her and going home. The police magistrate today gave her a remand.

OPPOSITION READY IN MADAWASKA

Mayor Cormier of Edmundston, and J. E. Clair Are Chosen Candidates.

EDMUNDSTON, N. B., July 6—The Provincial Opposition party held its convention here today to choose two candidates to represent the County of Madawaska in the election about to be held for the Provincial Legislature. Max D. Cormier, barrister-at-law, Mayor of Edmundston, and James E. Clair, of the parish of Clair, merchant, half-brother of the late Thomas Clair, who at one time represented this county in the Legislature, were nominated at an open air convention held in front of the bandstand on the town property. There was a large crowd present.

Among the speakers, all of whom spoke from the bandstand, were the two candidates, Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P., Opposition leader, and A. J. Doucet, M. P. from Kent county. A. D. Holyoke, party organizer, was also present. Dr. Sormany was chosen chairman and introduced the speakers. During the interval between speeches the Edmundston band furnished excellent music.

SAYS SOLD BELOW COST

Dr. Baxter asserted that the cost of Musquash was far in excess of the estimated cost. There was loss due to selling the power below cost, he declared, and, while the contracts entered into with the City of Saint John and Moncton were beneficial to these places, yet the rest of the province suffered because these contracts called for power below the cost to the province to develop it. Musquash power, he said, was sold on a basis of 1.2 cents per kilowatt hour, whereas it cost 1.8976 per k. w. h.

THINKS PRICE TOO HIGH

He thought the $1,200,000 to be paid to the International Paper Company was too much and that their rights were not worth it. He felt that the excessive cost of developing the Musquash was the result of ignorance and incompetence and that the Government should not be allowed to go on with the much larger and far more serious proposition of the Grand Falls development. If elected, he declared that Grand Falls development would go on, but not at a loss. He said it might take three or four months to gather together the necessary information to arrive at the right decision before plunging the province into a liability from which they might never recover.

Band Concerts In King Square Begun

The first regular concert for the season was given in King Square last night by the Saint John Fusiliers' band, under the direction of Bandmaster M. E. Perkins, warrant officer. The music was good and the programme was well selected. Nearly every seat was filled about the square. The programme was as follows: O Canada; march, "Collingwood," Pettee; overture, "Strarella," Flotow; fox trot, "You're Just a Flower from an Old Bouquet," Lucien Denni; euphonium solo, Old English song, "My Pretty Jane," played by E. M. Croft; Invitation a la Valse," Von Weber; fox trot, "San," Lindsay MacPhail; selections from Bohemian Girl, Balfe; waltz, "Thoughts," K. J. Alford; march, "Juarez," V. S. Shettino; God Save the King.
