STREET CAR BLOCKADES

Lady Lightfoot II is dead at Cedar Grove Farm. She was twenty-four years old, and was chloroformed on account of paralysis. Lady Lightfoot, bred by the late Fred Gebhard in California, was brought to Canada as a steeple chaser, by W. F. Dunshaugh but, having no success at that branch of sport, she passed into the stud at Oakville. It is said that she cost Mr. Giddings about $835 and if so she repaid that amount $835 and if so she repaid that amou iam J. Lynch, featherweight boxived yesterday from Bangor on a

"Truck," was the laconic reply.

The motorman opened the front door of the car and shouted it back to the conductor.

"Truck," he said. "I'll bet $5 every-body in there will be as mad as hornets inside of two seconds."

The sports element was decidedly scarce in that particular car, but if any-body present had been sufficiently controversial to take the wager the motorman opened the front door of the car and shouted it back to the car and shouted. "Truck," he said. "The work body in there will be as mad as hornets inside of two seconds."

SPORT BRIEFS

College Gent, the pacer that beat Smith and Proctor's Grand Opera in a sensational race at Brandon, Man., has retired into winter quarters with the rest of the Carson string at Winnipeg, Man. He made a record of 2.09½, but it is said to htve twice turned a half mile track in 2.06½. He won $10,250 during the season and is held at $20,000.

E. J. Rochon's Alberta Dillon won a five thousand dollar stake at Salem, Ore, and then returned to Winnipeg along with The Beaver, another crack, and other horses in the same stable.

"Orator' Jim O'Rourke says Mathewson is the greatest pitcher as ever was, an opinion with which John M. Ward, another famous has-been agrees, but the former says his old team could have beaten McGraw's Giants in batting and that the only way baseball has improved in the runck," he added to the inquisitive passenger. "The people riding inside the car are as bad as us folks in charge of it when it comes to that. A truck doesn't cut much figure with them so long as it behaves itself, but just let it get a tantrum and break down in front of a street car, and they are ready to put the whole race of trucks out of business.

"It is queer the way different blockades affect passengers. They can' stand one caused by fire better than any other kind. I have seen a whole carload of people get fighting mad because they were held up, yet the minute word was passed along the line that it was a fire that was holding them back they brightened up wonderfully and began to tell jokes and hum popular airs, as if they hadn't a care in the world. If the fire is near enough, say ten blocks or such a matter away, they'll all pile out and go and tell the firemen how to put it out.

"Some folks like to be held up by a military procession, but they are generally the ones up near the head of the line. Those back near the rear, who cannot catch a glimpse of the marchers and
