TOASTED CORN FLAKES

RECORD HALIBUT FARE
(Halifax Chronicle.)

To secure 23,000 pounds of fresh halibut in a week and receive the most sum of $2,000 in cash for the same seems a big feat for the captain and crew of a fishing schooner, but such has been the good fortune of Captain Hubley, of St. Margaret's Bay, commander of the little fishing schooner Ella May which arrived in yesterday morning from the Banks. The catch is a record one in so far as it applies to Halifax, being the largest haul of fish ever brought to this port. Previous to this large catch the record was 22,000 pounds also held by Captain Hubley, made last season. The Ella May had only been out one week.

CANADA CLUB DINNER WAS NOTABLE ONE

British and Canadian Financiers at London Function—J. H. Plummer Among the Speakers

(Times Special Correspondence.)
London, March 26.—A remarkable number of representatives of the principal banks and financial institutions were at the Canada Club dinner held last week under the presidency of H. V. Franklin Jones, London manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who was supported by the London managers of the Bank of Montreal and the Union Bank of Canada in the persons of F. Williams Taylor and F. W. Ashe. It was a happy coincidence that J. H. Plummer, president of the Dominion Iron and Steel Corporation, one of Canada's greatest industries, was in London at the time and able to make an excellent speech, very acceptable to such an audience. The actual deposits of the British banks represented at the dinner amounted to nearly $2,000,000,000.

"We certainly have never had such a numerous and influential representative body of financiers at one of the Canada Club dinners before," said the secretary of the club, J. G. Colmer, C. M. G., W. L. Griffith, the secretary to the high commissioner, spoke very hopefully of Lord Strathcona's condition and wonderful recuperative powers.

Amelia Jarvis of Toronto and Sir Daniel McMillan of Winnipeg were also present among a smaller number of visiting Canadians than is usually present. There have been larger gatherings at the club and the "Maple Leaf For Ever" has been sung in jocular tone, but Franklin Jones certainly can claim a record in the notable character of his audience, the significance of whose presence need not be dwelt upon. Mr. Plummer, at the close of his speech, made eulogistic reference to Mr. Jones, who acted as his secretary at the time he was assistant general manager of the Bank of Canada, and said it made him feel how fast the years slipped away to see the chairman occupying such a position so acceptably; though as a matter of fact Mr. Jones is still in the early forties.

In his response to the toast of the guests, ably and appropriately proposed by F. Williams Taylor, R. Martin Holland, C. B., whose family and his connections have been associated with the banking world since the days of Queen Elizabeth, spoke of the growing satisfaction which British investors were deriving from their Canadian holdings, and speaking on the night of an acute crisis in the coal strike, said he could not help feeling that whatever difficulties might have to be faced, the dominion could not but benefit, and apart from capital, would probably more and more attract the interests of the leading intellects of British finance and draw them to its shores.

Banking institutions and financial houses represented were as follows:—
Bank of England, J. G. Nairne.
Barclay's Bank, F. G. Goodenough.
British Linn Bank, J. T. Cole.
Brown, Shipley & Co., J. Leigh Wood.
Glyn, Mills, Currie & Co., A. Maxwell.
Hoares Limited, C. H. Hoare.
Lazard Freres, A. Heis.
Lloyds Bank, Henry Bell.
London Joint Stock Bank, Charles Gwyn.
London & South Western Bank, H. H. Hambling.
London County & Westminster Bank, Messrs. M. A. Hawthorne, J. G. Russell.
National Bank of Scotland, John Ferguson.
Martin's Bank, R. Martin Holland, C.B.
W. G. Turpin, of the National Debt Office, was also present.

Captain Adams McDougall has been appointed Inspector of Hulls for Nova Scotia to fill the position made vacant by the death of Captain Seely.

BORDERING ON THE MIRACULOUS

John McElroy's Heart Trouble Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills

Could Not Work All Summer, and Doctor Failed to Help, but Cure Was Quick When He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Benton, N. B., April 10.—(Special.)—Bordering on the miraculous is the cure of John McElroy, a young man well-known here. He was suffering from heart trouble and was so bad that all last summer he was not able to do a day's work. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him. In telling the story of his cure, Mr. McElroy says: "I went to a doctor who said I had palpitation, but his medicine did not seem to reach the spot. I suffered for over a year and all last summer I was not able to do a day's work. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I felt heavy and sleepy after meals and I was always tired and nervous. I perspired freely with the least exertion."

"After I had finished taking the doctor's medicine, and as I felt no better, I read in an Atlantic what Dodd's Kidney Pills could do and made up my mind to try them. Before I had finished the first box I felt different, and by the time the second was half gone I was working in the woods and doing good work."

BIG LUMBER DEAL

Andrews News.—N. B. Andrews, the well-known real estate man, has lately closed three important lumber deals affecting properties in Cumberland, Colchester and Halifax. The transfer price of the joint properties, so far as the News can learn, is in the vicinity of $105,000. The deals were closed last week.

CANADA'S CALL FOR CAPITAL

J. D. McGregor Speaks in London on Vast and Growing Resources of the Dominion

(Times Special Correspondence.)
London, March 26.—Your correspondent had an opportunity of seeing J. D. McGregor of the Southern Alberta Land Company before he left for Canada on Saturday. He had just returned after the fifth ordinary general meeting of the company, at which he was able to present some interesting material relative to the progress of the company.

In reply to questions as to the attitude of British financiers towards Canadian investments, he said that there was certainly a feeling of uneasiness here at the vast amount of British capital that was being transferred to the dominion. He was of the opinion that people here believed Canada was shouldering more than it could carry.

"Investors here do not always remember," he said, "that Canada is in a special position as regards the investment of capital, and that for some years to come her vast natural wealth must necessitate the employment of immense sums of money. If the construction of another transcontinental railway was begun tomorrow, before it approached completion the territories opened up would instantly call for the introduction of fresh funds. Canada's position is exceptional. Contrast it with a mining country—there the process is one of exhaustion; with us it is one of increase and each successive wave of capital only makes increasingly apparent the necessity for more."

EARL ROSE TEA "is good tea"

IN THE LEGISLATURE

MR. BOURASSA

An Estimate of His Political Career in the 'Pays'

Fredricton, N. B., April 10.—Mr. Copp continued his address upon the budget this afternoon and had nearly completed his remarks at 6 o'clock, when adjournment was made until tomorrow.

It is understood that there are several speakers upon the government side to address the house yet.

It is agreed upon all sides that Mr. Copp's arraignment of the government policy and his criticism of their extravagant expenditure has been the most complete of any, from an opposition standpoint, for years. He has yet to deal with the department of public works, and the tremendous wasteful expenditure of public money without tiring.

Mr. Shindler gave notice of enquiry regarding leases of oyster beds.

Mr. Burdell gave notice of enquiry regarding the Southwest Miramichi bridge.

Hon. Dr. Landry presented a petition in favor of a bill to incorporate North Shore Railway & Navigation Company Limited.

Mr. Munro presented a petition in favor of a bill to amend the act incorporating Bel-River Light, Heat & Power Company.

Hon. Mr. Maxwell presented a petition in favor of a bill to amend the act relating to the Imperial Dry Dock Company, St. John N. B.

Mr. Ship presented the report of the incorporation committee.

Mr. LaBrosse gave notice of enquiry regarding steel bridges.

Mr. Copp moved for stumpage returns.

Hon. Mr. Fleming said that the information was being secured by the department and would be laid before the house as early as possible.

Mr. Copp moved for all contracts, telegrams and correspondence relating to the St. John Valley Railway.

Hon. Mr. Fleming said that he presumed his hon. friend desired the agreement to lease between the provincial and federal governments and the railway company. The agreement to lease, under the Dominion act, makes it incumbent that the agreement be ratified by this house. A bill will be introduced and the items of the agreement will be considered therein. If his hon. friend desired any other information he would be pleased to bring it down without the formality of an address.

Hon. Mr. Ginner introduced bills to enable the town council of Milltown to fix a valuation on the property of the Canadian Cottons, Limited, and to amend the act incorporating the town of Milltown.

Referring to Henri Bourassa's retirement from active political life, the "Pays" gives the following appreciation of his parliamentary career:

"Four years ago Mr. Bourassa made a noisy and even violent entrance into provincial politics. Much was expected from his activity and his great talent, but he only furnished very little. However, the Nationalist leader sometimes made the halls of the Quebec parliament buildings echo with the most stirring and bold rhetoric that they ever heard, but he seems to have taken no care to integrate our politics with his ideas and spirit, and for that reason his legislative work is null. Mr. Bourassa entered Quebec as a conqueror; he was to carry everything before him. The clearest result of his attempt was to stir up bitter enmities in the Prime Minister and to bring the resources and fighting power of his Lomer Gouin."

"Nevertheless, the member for St. Hyacinthe brought some picturesque ideas into our parliamentary life. He recognized honesty, his character, the rectitude of his political life, his doctrines, his fiery eloquence gave his personality a special charm, and for those reasons his disappearance from the parliamentary field causes a certain regret. But let us tell all the truth. The presence of Mr. Bourassa in the ranks of the Opposition at Quebec had become latterly a source of vexation and worry for the Conservative party. The Ottawa Tories, entirely given up to the pleasures of power, now found him a marjory. The old Conservative element in Quebec feeling the need to recover wished to have elbow-room, and the long-speaking element in Montreal had for a considerable time past taken umbrage at the Nationalist leader and his eloquence. Mr. Bourassa feeling that his part to over in Quebec, and that he uselessly spent his self for others in the famous battles where he fought, especially during the last few years, has found that this was the proper time to go behind the scenes. He no longer cares about having a seat in parliament. He will rest satisfied with his journalistic chair at the 'Devon' with the bustings now and then, not wishing to entirely deprive himself of the transports of oratorical and oratorical."

"The Liberal party, whose programme has been losing its color since 1896, has suffered from the blows given by Mr. Bourassa, and the action of the member for St. Hyacinthe on public opinion has been the more effective from the fact that the political morals of some of our leaders and their lieutenants turn him towards the Liberal party."

"Mr. Bourassa, exhausted by fifteen years of great efforts, of continuous battles, of violent polemics, is going beyond the seas to seek a rest which he has earned and the oblivion of his mistakes. His parliamentary career is closed. His political career is finished. His journalistic career is in reality only beginning."

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN: WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

A PLEASANT BILL

An attractive story of early days in the southwest of California was presented yesterday at the Gem Theatre in "The Mission Wall," which is replete with strong dramatic and pathetic incidents and with human interest and causing the spectator to dwell upon what is best in life. The story is that of a young girl reared in the mission house, falling in love with one who is known as an outcast, but who proves himself worthy of a better name, making a noble sacrifice for the girl he loves. There was also presented an interesting drama of domestic life, "A Wife's Jealousy" wherein is seen that a misunderstanding can do a great deal of harm in a happy household. "A Bucktown Romance" was given by the Kaleid Co. and created much laughter. It is a clever up-to-date comedy. Anita Burnett was well received in her song recitals, while the orchestra had a pleasing programme as well.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS GO SWANS TO DEATH

J. R. Innes, secretary of the Quebec Association for the Protection of Fish and Game, has on his office table, a beautiful white swan, measuring from tip to tip of its wings, six feet and so. It is one of two hundred that sailed down from Lake Erie, placidly, on Good Friday morning, and were dashed to death over the falls at Niagara. The question naturally arises why did they not raise their wings when they realized that danger was at hand? The impression is that after their long flight from whatever place they had spent the winter, those swans had settled down on the smooth water which lured them to sleep, and carried them to death.

What was left of them at the foot of the falls was gathered up by the residents and sold at the rate of two dollars apiece. Many of them broke their necks in the fall.

One of the fish and game employees who was up at Niagara bought two of the birds and brought them down with him. "It seems a pity," said Mr. Innes, "that nothing can be done to save them. Each of these birds would probably have laid a dozen eggs, and thus the loss runs into thousands of swans."

"Got My Sore Foot in it Right!—TIZ"

"Is this man a tender-foot? No. He is a jay-walker—one who uses TIZ and get from the feet a happiness none ever feel before."

"Sure! I Use TIZ Every Time for Any Foot Trouble."
