The Lectures of the fourth year are few in number, students thus being left free to pursue in private any special course of Theological study, in doing which they are assured the assistance and direction of the Faculty. Except in the case of Resident Fellows, no exercises are required from those taking the Post-Graduate course.

Regulations for French and Gaelic Students.

All French students, and students preparing for French work, are required to attend the Lectures in Théologie Française, and English students who understand French are urged to do the same. Students taking this course, and passing examination in it, are exempted from examination in the Biblical History and Homiletics of the first year, the Apologetics and Sacred Rhetoric of the second, and the Exegesis and Architecture of the third. In the honour work they may also take the examinations in Latin, Greek, and Hebrew authors, and Calvin, Martensen, and Christlieb, in French instead of English. In the first year they may exchange Killen for De Pressensé, "Histoire des trois premiers siècles;" in the second year, Farrar and Shedd for Abbadie, "Traité de la Vérité de la Religion Chrétienne," and Vinet; and in the Post-Graduate course, Westcott for Reuss, "Histoire du Canon du Nouveau Testament." Students intending to exercise these options must give notice to the Principal or French Professor, at least three weeks before the sessional examinations.
