Miscegenation in New York

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Pressistates that there are at present two white ladies of wealth and former position, residing in the city of New York, who have black husbands. One was originally from Bridgport, Conn., where her family, a most report, Conn., where her family, a most respectable one, resides. The case of the second is remarkable, and might furnish a page to romance. This lady is a stately, magnificent woman, possessing fine intellectual and moral et.dowments, and a culture, in all that pertains to social accomplishments, which, perhaps, is only too rarely met with She Music and Singing, plain & ornamental Needle perhaps, is only too rarely met with She was an orphan, and possessed in her own right of property valued at fifty thousand dollars.
