SHRUBB BEAT LONGBOAT.

Toronto, July 31.—Four thousand people saw Alfie Shrubb defeat Tom Longboat to-night in the twelve-mile event at Scarborough Beach.

The race started at 9.15 p.m., and Shrubb took the lead at the crack of the pistol. At the end of the first mile, which was done in 4.37-4.5, Shrubb led by fifty yards and steadily increased his lead. At two miles, which the little Englishman covered in 9.44-9.5, had a 1-1/2 lap lead. The time for the three miles was 14.48-2.5, and for four miles 19.10-2.5, which is just seven seconds slower than the world's record. At five miles, which were done in 25.43-4.5, Shrubb had gained nearly a lap, but at this point the Indian braced up and gained a little ground during the sixth mile. His spurt was only temporary, however, and in the third lap of the seventh mile Shrubb gained a full lap and passed him.

KILLED BY HORSE

London Township Woman Meets Tragic Death.

NEIGHBORS FEEL BITTER

Feeling Arising Out of Fact That Mrs. Martin Jenkins and Husband Lived Apart Has Resulted in an Inquest Into Her Death—Found With Crushed Skull in a Stable—Kicked by Vicious Horse?

London, Aug. 2.—The mysterious death of Mrs. Martin Jenkins of London Township has convulsed the whole neighborhood. Excitement is intense and the sole topic of discussion is the mysterious death.

The coroner's jury after viewing the remains Saturday night adjourned until Tuesday night when all available evidence will be heard.

On Friday morning the husband, James C. Jenkins hurriedly despatched two of his sons to neighbors' houses with the news that Mrs. Jenkins had been kicked by a horse and was dying. Mrs. Morrow and Wm. McNaughton, the neighbors summoned, hurried to the scene, and when they arrived found the woman lying in one of the stalls in the stable unconscious. Her head was battered and bruised, and she died within an hour. Just beyond the stalls there is a box stall in which a stallion is kept. The door of this was open and the stallion was found in the barn yard. There were horses in the other stalls.

Dr. McNeil is the coroner and in consequence of the rumors afloat in the neighborhood, he ordered an inquest, but after consultation with the legal authorities decided to call on Dr. Ferguson to conduct the investigation. Upon the facts being laid before Crown Attorney McKillop he ordered an inquest, which opened on Saturday night.

The story told by the husband is that he was in a field near the barn and noticed the stallion in the barn yard. He drove it into the barn and there found his wife lying on the floor with her head smashed in.

The woman was carried into the house, where she died soon afterward. The family moved from Westminster Township six years ago, and there are six children.

The funeral of Mrs. Jenkins was held yesterday, and was an immense one. The services were conducted by Rev. John Mahan of Arva, assisted by Rev. B. L. Hutton of London. Interment was made at St. John's.

In the neighborhood of the tragedy there appears to be considerable ill-feeling towards Jenkins, though apparently with little real grounds. Jenkins is about 55 years of age, and the deceased, who was his second wife, was 42. They have not always lived happily together, having been living separately for about a year.

Various theories are advanced as to how the woman met death. When she was lying in the middle stall with her head in the passage leading to the box stall in which the stallion was kept. The most likely accidental theory is that the horse stall was left open or loose and that the stallion broke out while the woman was in the barn gathering eggs and knocking her down, crushed her head against the door.

There were also wounds on the left eye and on the top and back of the head. The injuries were more than sufficient to cause death.

VICE-CONSUL IS MURDERED.

New York, Aug. 2.—Dr. Luke Wing, Chinese vice-consul at New York, was murdered at night in his office in a lower Broadway building Saturday afternoon by a man who shot him in the back with a revolver.

Michael McDonnell, for 27 years special watchman at the Chinese consulate, identified the murderer as Wong Bow Chung, who, he says, was formerly a steward on the U. S. battleship Indiana.

Makes a Hero by Surgery. Paris, Aug. 2.—Such emotions as fear and melancholy are conveyed by a small nerve which springs from the human brain near the medulla oblongata, the top of the spinal cord.

So announces Dr. Bonnier, a distinguished surgeon, who adds that he has removed this nerve and so relieved greatly persons suffering from melancholy and timidity.

Other surgeons seem sceptical about the value of Dr. Bonnier's discovery. But newspaper paragraphers find opportunity to discuss the possibility of turning a coward into a hero by a surgical operation.

Fruit Farmer S'clides. St. Catharines, Aug. 2.—Stephen M. Clonnes, aged 80 years, committed suicide Saturday by hanging himself. About two months ago he came to this district and purchased a farm from a short dining his family missed him and after a search his son found him dead hanging to a tree a short distance from the house. He came here from Ontario.

Disproportion is given as the cause of the rash act. He leaves a widow and one son.

White-Black Man Dis. Rochester, Aug. 2.—Jacob Thomas, a remarkable colored man, died yesterday in Le Roy.

Thomas' color in the last twelve years changed from the darkest hue of the negro to white, so much so that he would be passed in the streets as a white man.
