

POINTERS.

There are no pew rents, the entire income being raised by voluntary contributions through envelopes and plate collections.

It is confidently expected that every one attending the church will be as liberal as circumstances will allow, and as God has prospered him or her.

Everyone is earnestly urged to contribute a fixed sum weekly, so that the officers may know what income to expect.

God's plan is giving a tenth of our income. Study this question in the Bible.

If any one of the congregation is sick, tell the pastor. Don't wait for some one else to do it.

Tell the pastor of any family, or individual, lately come into the town, attending the Methodist Church.
