

Conditions

Boarders	$ 80.00
Outside boarders.....	24.00
Bed and bedding.....	10.00
Wash-basin and bowl, table utensils etc.....	2 50
Use of the Library.....	1 00
Physician's Fee [free].....	1.00
Washing	7.50

The different payments must be invariably made in two instalments and strictly in advance. The first payment must be made when the College opens and the second at the beginning of February.

Classical books are furnished by the institution at parents' expenses.

All sick scholars are intrusted to the care of the Sisters of the Holy Cross Hospital, and the bill is charged to their parents' account.

No student will be received unless he pay for the first half-year and settle all his old debts.

Interest will be exacted for all arrears

No deduction for departure before the expiration of a month once began.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REGULATIONS

Every student must habitually wear the uniform of the House which consists of a black frockcoat with white seams, known by the name of the "scholar's coat" he should also have a violet sash and a military cloth cap.

Every student must be provided with a suit of Altar clothes which is composed of a cassock and a surplice.

Every new scholar must present on his arrival a certificate of good behaviour from his Parish Priest or if he has been in an other Institution from the President thereof.

Parents will receive thrice a year a report of their children's progress and deportment.

All scholars who do not succeed in their classes, who are unmanageable and pernicious to their companions and whose conduct is scandalous or gives rise to suspicion will be sent home.