The deceased was a native of the State of Maine, and came to New Brunswick between fifteen and twenty years ago. He had large fishing interests at the North Shore and resided there for some time. He patented a refrigerator for freezing salmon, and, comping to 85 John, established himself on Brook street, near the I C R round house. He curried on a lucrative business there for some years, and shout two years ago retired from active labor. He had been married about eight years and leaves no issue. His wife is a niece of Judge Williston of the North Shore. He was a man generally respected, and his sudden decease will be sincerely regretted.—
