Mary had a love-lane shop, it followed her to church, and stood around the door, like an owl upon its perch. Why don't the little sheep come in the watchful people said. Why Mary told us silly thing to watch for her outside. So you, each gentleman, may one and all will find, some sheephead walking near the door, if you admire that kind. -Hilldale (Mich.) Leader.

Rev. Geo. S. Anderson's Success.
The Somerville, Mass., "Journal" of 25th ult., has an interesting report of the exercises of the 9th anniversary of the Highland Congregational Sunday School, which was held at Chatham, N.B. The pastor is Rev. Geo. S. Anderson, formerly of Douglastown and Chatham, and it is evident from the account of this S. S. celebration that his ministry has been a great success. The whole church was elaborately decorated with flowers and there were 140 children on the platform. The programme was largely a musical one. The great organ, by Mr. Anderson, and the choir sang in the afternoon. The offerings on the occasion were $907.81—an indication of the strength of the church in temporal matters.

Summer School of Science.
We are to be favored by having the Summer School of Science meet in Chatham between the 21st of July and 7th of August, and it will be an exceptionally good opportunity for our teachers to acquire a knowledge of all that is recent and up to date in the art of teaching. It is a teacher's lot to be possibly cultivate the happy art of interesting the children in the beauties of Nature he takes the shortest road to their hearts and, and so it is not only because a valuable gift for him but he will also (and that is far more important) probably make an indelible impression on the youthful minds, giving them a bent which will last as long as life.

From Tuesday, being called on, made a very happy speech, embracing a retrospect of the history of St. Andrew's church and reference to the leading members of its congregation who had held positions of prominence in it—such as the Rev. Mr. Macleod, London, Donald MacLellan, Wm. Johnston and others. The old church, under pastor Henderson, was, however, a far more important one than ever before, that gentleman's fine business capacity, and ministerial efficiency, aided by the excellent workers who surrounded him contributing to the bright conditions existing. He was well met by Mr. Henderson and his bride every happiness in their new relationship.

Remarks were made by Messrs. W. S. Loggie, M. P. P., George Stothard, Geo. Dickson and others, which, in addition to the social intercourse, music, etc., made the occasion a very interesting one. "God Save the King" was sung "as a close to the happy event."

The Miramichi Revisited.
During his brief visit to his birthplace and old home—Chatham—Mr. John B. Griffin, of Chicago, who is the eldest son of the late Jas. Griffin, formerly Collector of Indian Revenue here, has had occasion to realize that whatever other changes have taken place on the Miramichi since he was a boy, it has lost none of its attractions as a centre of enjoyable hospitality for its residents. While in Chatham Mr. Griffin was the guest of his brother-in-law, R. A. Lawlor, Esq., K. C., and others have from that gentleman in making Mr. Griffin's stay a pleasant one.

Amongst the outings got up on his special account was an excursion on Mr. F. M. Tweedie's steam yacht "Weonah" on Tuesday afternoon, amongst the participants in which, besides Mr. Griffin, were Messrs. Tweedie, H. High Sheriff, L. Col. Call, U. S. Consul; Commodore J. C. Miller, of the Miramichi Yacht Club; R. A. Lawlor, K. C.; Robt. Murray, K. C.; W. B. Tupper, Manager of the Bank of New South; D. G. Smith, Fishery Commissioner; T. P. Puley, of St. John; Fredk. Dyke and Jas. Johnston.

After Messrs. Call and Miller were taken on board at Newcastle, the yacht proceeded up river and anchored in "The Tickle," where dinner was served on board, after which Messrs. Berris and the Wilsons' boat landed on the shore, the others on the Miramichi, were visited and some of the latter's quaintly expressed epithets disported, the party returning about 7 p.m.

A similar excursion was given on Monday afternoon by Commodore Miller in his sloop yacht, John W., which was participated in by nearly all the gentlemen above named as well as Mr. Geo. A. Day, Reel, Dominion Engineer; W. S. Moore, Manager of the Bank of New South; Newcastle; Corby Clarke; John W. Miller and Mr. Lambert's Fiat. On this occasion the run was made down river into the broad bay of the Miramichi, thence up to the Berthling Island anchorage, where a number of the party landed on the island, the return to Chatham being made at 6 p.m.

Mr. Griffin also participated in driving and other parties, remaining some days longer than he had intended, and is now on his way back to Chicago wishing, no doubt, that he could take with him Miramichi river and bay, its pleasant drives and its smiling and delightful scenery, and the air and the friends who made his short visit a very pleasant one.

The Advantage of Being Good.
NEWCASTLE WINS IN THE TUGGLE WITH THE CONFERENCE.

The final status sheet of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Methodist conference turned out to be not final. One change has been found necessary, and this change involves others. It is not exactly certain what these changes will be, because some of the adjustments are not completed.

But President Berris, who has the reconsiderations in hand, will hardly get the status sheet until the end of the month. At present, the status sheet is in the hands of the committee to which they were assigned.

It all began at Newcastle. This circuit became vacant out of its turn by the sudden and lamented death of Rev. Mr. Palmer. The status sheet of the circuit was in the hands of the committee to which they were assigned.

cheerfully observed, like the coffin of Mohammed.

At Newcastle Mr. Berris has found that the Newcastle congregation has a stronger one than was made to appear when the stationing committee had the matter in hand. The case involves the shelter and one of the family of the late pastor, and also church considerations of great weight.

It is understood that the arguments have impressed Mr. Berris, and that he is likely to recommend the transfer of Mr. Johnson. This involves the assignment of another circuit to Mr. Lawson. Among those who have been mentioned are Hampton, Margate, P. E. I., and Andover. All these are already provided and the problem is to make the shift with the least possible friction. It is said that Mr. Lawson will probably bring up Andover and that Rev. Mr. Ives, who has been appointed to that place, will be transferred to Lindsay, which is left to be supplied.

Then there is Tabusintac. According to present appearances this station will be filled by the transfer of Rev. E. C. Hennigar, a St. John boy, who is now stationed at Deer Island. Some one else will have to go to Deer Island, but the Star has not been able to follow the chain any further.
