Mr. E. A. Norton, a well-known citizen of Grimsby, Ont., was severely attacked with inflammatory rheumatism some 20 years ago—after a time he recovered, but five or six weeks ago the dread disease returned so vio lently that he had to give up work. For nearly three weeks he lay in bed suffering terrible agony. Another resident of the town who had been cured by South American Rheumatic Cure persuaded him to try it, and, to his great surprise after using the medicine but one week he was so far recovered as to go about town. From the first dose taken he felt marked improvement, and today he is most enthusfastic in singing its praises. E. M. Walker Pleads Guilty of Assault and is Fined Fifty Dollars.

Other Cases-Men at Work at Digby Pier Suspended on Saturday.

(Special to the Sun.) Digby, June 11.-In the case of the Queen v. Ed. M. Walker, A. J. S. Copp and Harry I. Dennison for prosecu-tion and T. C. Shreve for defence, the prisoners pleaded guilty to an indicament of assault causing grevious bodily harm, and at the request of the counsel for the prisoner sentence was deferred until the last day of court to enable the prisoner's counsel to obtain a list of names of parties requesting that the penalty be made as as possible owing to the prisoner's condition. This morning Walker was brought before Judge Townsend, who sentenced him to a fine of fifty dolhers and costs of prosecution, or six months in jail, charging him very strongly for such cowardly actions, and stated that the offence was more the act of an insane person, and was the act of an insane person, and was consequently lement in administering the penalty. Walker was remanded to jall and refuses to pay the amount. In the case of the Queen v. Annie Lord and the Queen v. Jennie Kelly, on the charge of perjury, no bill was found.

In the case of the Queen v. Emma Dakin the grand jury found a bill, and the cause was tried. S. H. Pelton, Q. C., assisted by Harry L. Dennison, I rosecuting, and W. E. Roscoe, Q. C. and J. J. Ritchie, Q. C., defending.
Mrs. Lord, who has been in jail on a charge of perjury, was a witness in this case for the prosecution, the evidence of whom was not at all edifying to the court or public. After several witnesses had been examined the Judge directed a verdict of not guilty on the technical ground that the mar-riage between W. S. Troop and his wife had not been sufficiently proven, and the jury returned a verdict accordingly. In his remarks the judge said it was the first case of this kind that had ever come before the courts in this province and very few had Much sympathy is expressed for Miss Dakin and her family that such a case
