SMALLPOX CONDITIONS IN PICTOU COUNTY

Stellarton Was Closed Up Yesterday—No Church Services in New Glasgow for Some Months.

Mr. Andrew M. Douglas, of New Glasgow, was in the city today, and in conversation with the Star said that conditions in Pictou county during the winter had been rather dull owing to the prevalence of smallpox.

Mr. Douglas is of the opinion that this epidemic, though it has been here for some time, is still in its early stages.

There is great disagreement among the doctors as to the nature of the disease, though there are few in practice in the city who have had any wide experience with smallpox.

PROMINENT CITIZENS WILL CONTEST DIFFERENT WARDS

O. H. Warwick, A. H. Hanington, J. V. Russell, Dr. Frink, W. D. Baskin and Others Will Become Candidates—More to Follow

Now that the ward system seems assured for the coming civic contest, men who have been taking an interest in public affairs of late are looking about for the purpose of securing suitable candidates.

Mr. Andrew M. Douglas, of New Glasgow, was in the city today, and in conversation with the Star said that conditions in Pictou county during the winter had been rather dull owing to the prevalence of smallpox.

CHARGED WITH STEALING A SMALL JAR OF CHEESE

G. P. R. Detective Arrested One of the Sand Point Workmen This Morning.

C. P. R. Detective L. L. Cook has made another capture at Sand Point, and as the result of his early morning work a respectably connected man is locked up in jail on the charge of theft.

The man, who is a C. P. R. trucker, was found in unloading a car of cheese. The foreman of the gang found one of the cases broken open and immediately telephoned for the detective.

Suspicion rested on the person in question, and he was placed under arrest. A jar of the cheese was found in his dinner pail and he was locked up. He claims that a man gave him the cheese. This morning before Magistrate Rivie he pleaded not guilty, and was remanded until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the case will be taken up.

SEVERAL ARE ANXIOUS TO COMMAND THE CURLEW

But it is Believed That Capt. Robinson Will Get the Position.

It is said that there are a number of mariners who have an eye on the commandship of the Government Fishing vessel Curlew which will soon go into commission.

During the time that Captain Pratt was under suspension Captain Robinson, who brought charges against Captain Pratt, was in command, and it is said that his chances are the brightest for the position, despite the fact that he is a capable man who has been longer in the government service.

The Curlew is now at the Maritime Naval Works wharf undergoing the annual overhauling.
