ST. MICHALS, Md., June 28—The coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs Edith May Woodill will be re-Scholarships are Offered for the Summer School of Science.

Mrs Edith May Woodill will be resumed today with several of the jurors still convinced that there was a large element of truth in the letter left by "Lame Bob" Eastman, the fugitive broker and suicide, who declared that there had been a party in his bungalow and that Mrs. Woodill had been attacked with a champagne bottle and slain by a jealous woman.

The jury will meet in the lonely little bungalow itself within sight of the grave to which the body of Eastman declared off and therefore the strike now is on in earnest.

Mayor Magee, however, is making an effort to bring about a speedy settlement and to that end has invited the traction officials and leaders of the striking employes to meet in his offices this afternoon to discuss the questions at issue.

Robert Dixon, arrested on the charge of vagrancy, was remanded to jail.

Henry Foran was charged by his wife with criminal neglect and assault on the 24th of June. Mrs. Foran, sault on the 24th of June. Mrs. Foran, a frail, sickly looking woman, gave evidence that her husband had been drinking heavily lately. She had four children, the youngest four weeks and the oldest four years. She said that on Thursday morning last when her husband came home from his work he swore at her and ordered her from the house, and when she refused to go without the children or her clothes, he dragged her to the door.

The prisoner informed the court that when he arrived home Thursday morning from work his wife was packing her trunk, and among the stuff she was putting in were articles that did not belong to her. He told her he did not want trouble but she insisted on going and she left her children behind. Defendant had to get a neighbor to take care of them for a time. SACKVILLE, N. B., June 28-That s reported on good authority that negotiations for the purchase of the business and plant of the Rhodes Curry Company, Limited, by a company of Upper Canadian capitalists have been lation which come from reliable quarters. It is said that the Upper Canadian people concerned in deal, whether Montrealers or Canadian Northern, have planned on extending the plant considerably. Among other changes which it is said will probably be made is the addition of locomotive making shops and facilities, While it is difficult to obtain definite information here or, in Amherst, the statement has been made of late that N. Curry, the present chief, would remain with the new company for term of several years if deal were carried through.
