DARING ROBBERY IN AN OTTAWA STORE

Four Strangers Steal Several Hundred Dollars Worth of Jewels.

OTTAWA, July 21.—A daring robbery of several hundred dollars worth of rings was perpetrated by four strangers about noon today in the jewelry store of Alex. McMillan, Sparks street. Two men entered the store during lunch hour and engaged the two clerks in the store at the time in showing them some umbrellas at the far end of the store. Meanwhile two other men entered the store quietly, and while the clerks were busy with the first two men, handed over the counter and lifted out two trays of rings with which they immediately decamped. The clerks discovered the theft a few minutes later and notified the police who at once went to Central Station and a train for Winnipeg were suspected of being confederates of thieves and were followed on train by detectives. One of them who gave the name of James Howard, was arrested as the train neared Hull, but the others, when he saw the detective place his companion under arrest took a flying leap from the train and escaped. The man under arrest declares he knows nothing of the robbery but is held by the police pending further investigation.

AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS ON THE VALUE OF THRIFT

Dr. Samson Explains the Government Annuity System to Attentive Audience—Painted Vividly the Horrors of a Destitute Old Age and Showed How Easily it Could be Avoided

The value of a government annuity was strongly impressed on the audience that gathered in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening to listen to Dr. Samson of the government staff of lecturers. Dr. Samson has the reputation of being one of the best platform speakers in Canada, and the exceedingly interesting manner in which he presented what might have been a rather dry subject, clearly demonstrated his ability along this line. He painted vividly the horrors of a destitute old age and showed how it could be avoided by the very little thrift while man or woman is young. The plan under which annuities are sold was clearly outlined, the speaker giving in detail the regulations which govern the system and the benefits to be derived from it. The programme was delivered by a vocal solo, The Man of the North, excellently rendered by S. J. McEwan. About two hundred people, including a large number of ladies and men from practically every class, listened with closest attention for two hours to the address.

Mayor Bullock in a brief speech introduced the speaker of the evening. Dr. Samson said that he had been introduced as the chief lecturer of the department. He wished to say that this was not his vocation. He was just a country doctor taking the first holiday he had had in over forty years. Dr. Samson said that he was to tell about the government annuities scheme. It was not a plan for pensions, because pensions were not needed in this country. The government has decided that there is not a man in this country who cannot if he wishes lay away enough to keep him from the disgrace of old age in his old age.

The government's plan is a simple business proposition. Taking the case of a workman who wishes to save a little money the speaker outlined what he ought to do with it.

There are many ways in which the money may be invested, but few of them will guarantee the annuity and regular income by which if you live to the end of your life you will have the money to pay for your old age, when he needs it most.

MAY BE DRAWN OUT.

The money may be placed in the Post Office Savings Bank, which is absolutely secure, but it has the disadvantage that the money may be drawn out at any time.

The only way in which the savings may be ensured absolutely for the old age of the investor is by the annuity. An annuity was defined as an arrangement with a country or a company by which you pay a certain amount in with the understanding that at a certain age you will begin to draw a regular income by which if you live to the ordinary length of life you will get back the amount you invested with compound interest less the expenses of administering the fund.

In this case there are no expenses. The government has decided to tax all the citizens alive to pay the expense of looking after the annuity funds. The method in which the many may be paid in are suited to the wish of the investor. It may be paid in one sum, or it may be paid in instalments, in fact in almost any way. The payments may be made at the post office or by sending the money direct to the government.

No annuity is assured for less than $50 per year, or for more than $500 per year. The income may commence at 55 years of age, but not earlier. Once the money is paid in it cannot be withdrawn until the investor reaches the age of 55 at least.

The scheme is intended for young men rather than old men, but provision is made for both classes. If a man of middle age wishes to buy an annuity, if he wishes to do so he may pay in the amounts he would have paid if he had started at 30 years of age, and so draw the full annuity later on.

If a man dies before he reaches the age at which the annuity commences the amount he has invested is paid to his heirs, with four per cent interest added. This amount may not be seized by courts for debt or for any other purpose.

As an illustration of the way in which the annuity system works out the speaker told of an old man in Charlottetown who at the age of 72 invested $10,000 in an annuity of $160 per year from an insurance company. He lived until he was 92 years old and drew $32,000 in all.

It was not, however, a speculation. It was all worked out with mathematical precision. The average length of life is known exactly, some fall below it and some run over the average, but the total works out with absolute certainty. This is the basis of the figures on which the annuities are planned.

The lecturer then outlined the simple system of making the payments of the annuity into the post office to secure an annuity and suggested that it was a good thing for a man to allow his wife to look after his savings and make the payments for him. He then spoke of the thousands of men in this country who are earning good wages and have always done so, but who have not a dollar to their name now to provide for their future. It is for this class that the scheme is chiefly intended.

A few examples of how rapidly savings multiply at compound interest were then given.

To allow the fears of any who feared that they might not pay in enough to get even the minimum annuity, the

AMUSEMENTS

NEW MUSICAL FEATURES AT THE NICKEL TODAY.

The Nickel will start upon the week-end with an entirely new programme of musical features. Holmes & Buchanan, at several requests, will sing that exquisite duo from The Belle of New York, entitled: "When We Are Married," in reality the gem of the opera. In addition they will present a comedy number, "The Boy Who Stuttered and the Girl Who Lapsed," a veritable scream of laughter. Miss Holmes will repeat her hit of last season, "The So Lonely" (dirt song), and Mr. Buchanan is to sing "In Time of Roses," a charming German lyric. Here are four numbers, varied, and each one a headliner. Master Harrington will do an English Johnnie song, "I've Got Another One," which is exceedingly funny, and the picture features will be the Chicago melo-drama, "The Country Girl's Peril," "Ribbon Mater" and "The Folding Sideboard Bed." Orchestra as usual. New pictures Friday and special matinee Saturday.

DAN LAMONT AND HIS BIG AR-

RIVAL CIRCUS A HIT.

Packed house was in order at the Princess all day yesterday, and no wonder, for the Dan Lamont Circus is the best that has ever struck this city. There are trained monkeys, rats and dogs in this act and no one should fail to see this act. Lamont's Circus has only been engaged for one week, and those who have not availed themselves of the opportunity should do so at once, for they will probably never have the chance of seeing the like of this act again. The other acts in the bill are Austin Walsh, in that eight-seeing trip in the rocket wheel, which is a big scream, as is also Longfellow, the tall fellow, who will keep you laughing with his funny sayings and musical oddities. The picture programme is the best for a long time. New musical hits by the orchestra.

NEW SHOW AT H. H. H. TODAY.

The Happy Hour show still continues to please. Last night it was again applause and encore. Today the Berlin has a very strong programme. Mile Berlin will sing the Melba Waltz Song, and it is a number that will give her magnificent voice ample scope. Signor Berlin will sing the tenor solo from Cavilleria Rusticana, and the duet will be Springtime, completing one of the best programmes they have yet offered. Brown and Hedges are still making a hit. Today they will sing new songs and illustrate them by new drawings. Many requests are being made for their drawings. Don't miss this act; it's a novelty, and they close Saturday night. The pictures yesterday were splendid. Ben's Kid, as predicted, made a hit, and many declared it to be the best Western picture yet shown here. Two others, one drama and one comedy, closed the bill. New pictures tomorrow, but don't miss today's. Matinee at 2.15; evenings at 7.15 and 8.45.

GIBRALTAR ROCK

LIKELY NOW FOR ST. JOHN

MONTREAL, July 21.—The Prudential, it is rumored, is to build a chain of rocks of Gibraltar across the continent north of the Atlantic border. There is to be one in St. John likely where the headquarters for the Maritime times will be. There is to be one in St. James street, Montreal, which is to be the head office for Canada. It is a fact that the company has three options on St. James street, but has not moved yet. There will be one in Toronto, one in Winnipeg and one on the coast. At least that is the programme laid out at present. Several Montreal capitalists are interested in the scheme and it may be that a Canadian franchise may be formed. The Montreal building is to be a handsome stone structure of ten or twelve stories, the building limit in Montreal.
