A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR,

A DEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HALL Is the grandest ornament belonging to the hum frame. How strangely the loss of it changes to countenance, and prematurely brings on the a pearance of old age, which causes many to recoil being uncovered, and sometimes even shut accie to avoid the jests and sneers of their ecupitations the romainder of tueir lives is consequently spe-in retirement. In short, not even the loss of pr perty fills the generous thinking youth with the avert all these unpleasant circumstances. Of DRIDGETS BALM OF COLUMELA stops 1 hair front falling off on the first application, and few bottles restores it again. It likewise produce eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair fro-turning gray, makes it curtheautifully, and frees from sourt.
