It is a great pleasure to be able to record the fact that we are at last to have a dance, after an exceedingly long wait between the acts. Halifax society will once more have a chance of attending a ball. That most pleasant and cheerful of hostesses, Mrs. Daly, has sent out invitations for a dance on Tuesday, September 12th. More than a week off yet, but all the better, the pleasure of looking forward will be keen. Mrs. Daly's dances are always pleasant, but this one will be more so than usual, for every one will feel that they have just come back to life and perhaps will be surprised to find that they can still dance. The choosing of partners will be quite exciting, for when we have a pay summer and dances every week and sometimes twice a week, the girls get into the way of having regular partners such as one for number four and such a one for five and six, and so on through the programme. These programmes are already filled before going to the ball, and the poor man who waits till the last moment to fill his, finds, much to his sorrow, that those of the most popular and beautiful ladies have been filled long ago and he is left lamenting or has to put up with bad dancers and wall-flowers. It is rather mean this principle of cornering the best dancers, but still the girls have to protect themselves and naturally wish to dance with those who are the best dancers, or whom they like best. A girl has very little chance of refusing an acquaintance a dance, unless she has a comparative full programme, otherwise she may be condemned to dance with men that she does not like, and who are not good dancers. Many a man asks some pretty and popular beauty to dance, out of vanity. He likes people to see that he is enough important to dance with a society belle. There are one or two men in Halifax who are noted for this, the beauty and a dance, is for the time of very great importance and is at a small non-official entertainment the most important person there. If she can choose the partners let her do so, for I do not see why any partner should be forced upon her. With the girl who is not gifted with a superabundance of partners on the other hand it is a very different thing. She as a rule has to take whom she can get, or go without. But this seldom happens in Halifax, except at one of the large balls, when people are asked who are not in the habit of going to the smaller ones. Men are generally abundant and when they are selected the irrepressible middlemen is always ready to take their place.

The Garrison regatta on the North West Arm on Sept. 14th promises to be a very successful affair. The ardent nautical spirits in the Garrison, and they are at present numerous, are working hard at it and mean to make it a success. The regatta has made the great mistake of leaving it to a late date, for we are very likely to have a blowy, blustery day, with the thermometer down to freezing, making outdoor amusements anything but pleasant. As well as this regatta there is to be a Gylfana when the Blake comes back, so that the Garrison will be doing their fair share of providing amusement in outdoor lines. The Gylfana is to be sailed by the Polo Club, as a wind up to a very successful season. The Polo Club will be a sad loss, for Major Mayock leaves the Garrison, as he will be doing next month. He has taken a great interest in Polo and has done very much to keep the Garrison on Wednesday morning. The only Halifax person on board was Surgeon Colonel Archer, who is going home on leave. Although not as well known in general society as his immediate predecessor, Surgeon General McDowell, still he is very popular with those who know him and much anxiety was expressed for his safe return.

It is to be hoped that all Halifax will turn out and patronize the grand party to be held at Belmont, which has been kindly left by Mrs. Thomas Ritchie in aid of the S. P. C. A. charity such as that needs no puffing, and it is only to be wished that it would be the fashionable charity, for with that it would flourish.

That it is always unkind to postpone an entertainment was clearly demonstrated on Tuesday. Mrs. Leach had postponed her party from last Tuesday on account of the damage done by the great gale on Monday week. But she was not best with very fine weather on her second attempt. The result of that, however, the beautiful grounds at Oaklands looked lovely and every one seemed to enjoy being out. Tea was the last, but most of the guests kept to the ground, as much as possible and played games out on the lawn. The weather was lovely and so many of the handsome dresses were worn, nearly every one being in serge and skirt. It takes a very fine day for Halifax to array herself in the gorgeous costume for a garden party.

In Wednesday, Mrs. Morrison, of F. Rawood, had a composite picnic-tee on the other side of the Arm, then returning to Fernwood for a dance and supper. It was a lovely day and a beautiful night, although somewhat windy at first, still the night turned out beautiful and was given as a farewell to Mr. Arthur Morrison, who leaves to return to his work. Every one was glad to see Mr. William Morrison able to be home again, but he had a very severe time of it but is now on the highroad to health.

It was pleasant to welcome old friends back again namely Mrs. and Mr. Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith and her daughter. It is nearly two years since Mrs. Keith and her daughters went to England, and they have been much missed in Halifax. Miss Wickie is the latest debutante in Halifax, and will come out at the ball at Government House. It is pleasant to see Keith Hall inhabited once more and the new house which Dr. Wickie has bought and refitted and furnished.

There have been rumours, the last few weeks, that another regiment is to be stationed here, and new barracks are to be built for its accommodation. It is very doubtful if this be true, so it is only given for what it is worth. But if it is all correct, would rejoice for it would add to the gaiety of this somewhat, at least in the eyes of the young.

Last week on Thursday there was a very pleasant picnic at Purcellville. In spite of the wet and foggy day, a very fine day for Halifax to array herself in the gorgeous costume for a garden party.

On Monday the officers of the Kings Royal Regiment were at home at the range at MacNabs at what they humbly call a camp fire. It was a pleasant night and the festivities were kept up till a late hour and were much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. W. J. Moran, one of our very popular merchants, joined his manly and quietly staid on Wednesday to Roxbury, where he joined in a happy contract with Miss Jennie Darling of that place, and left on a wedding tour to Montreal and other towns of importance. Miss Darling has a great many friends in town, so the home-coming of Mr. and Mrs. Moran is looked forward to with much pleasure, as the groom is a great factor in society.

Miss Abel Aver of Sackville, was in town a few days, the guest of her friend, Miss Page, Eddy street.

Mrs. Girtson, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Biden, went to her home in St. John on Saturday.

Mr. Will Fride's friends are much pleased to see him in Amherst, after a three years' absence in Lynn, Mass.

Noticeable among the host of visitors who attended the race last week was Mr. B. B. Hard, formerly of Amherst, who is now in St. John, N. B.

Miss Jennie Kennel, who has been spending a few weeks with her friend, Miss May Quigley, returned to her home in Halifax on Friday.

Mrs. J. Gates and little daughter are enjoying a delightful visit to her brother's home in Troy, N. Y. She intends returning next week, via Annapolis Valley where she has many friends.

None were more welcome among our visitors of the past week than Rev. Mrs. Miles of P. E. I., who accompanied by Mrs. Miles, see Miss Lou Campbell, are paying a visit to Mr. N. Campbell, Church street.

Mrs. Miller of Moncton arrived on Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. J. G. Ketchum.

On Tuesday Miss May Hanford returned from a visit to Charlottetown, where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Carvell.

The annual gun tournament began on Tuesday and some pretty good scores were the result. Five o'clock tea was all in the shade this week on that account. Every one is in sympathy with our genial sportsman, Mr. Frank Wilson, who held one of the cups last year, but has resigned it to Mr. T. D. Munro, of Wolfville, for the next year. Today they are shooting for the gold medal presented by Donahue, Cooke & Co., and there will be considerable appointments. It is a fine sport.

Mr. A. W. Bateson has returned from England and it looks as if for the purpose of trying his skill at the tournament, at any rate he is most heartily welcome by his sporting friends and society in general.

On Tuesday afternoon the Baptist church was the resort of the fashionable public to witness the marriage of Miss Lou Rogers to Mr. E. J. G. Ketchum, of Alberton, for a long time, and being so popular among her young friends, there was an unusual crush to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Mr. Steele. The bride was led to the altar by her brother, Mr. H. W. Rogers, who gave her in keeping to the handsome groom, who was supported by the Rev. David J. Fraser. Miss McCullough, in a toilet of brown cloth and shot silk, was maid of honor to the bride, who looked wonderfully well in a very stylish and becoming gown, of green velvet, with a very rich and trimmings of green velvet, with hair to match. The church was prettily decorated with flowers, and a large arch supporting a beautiful marriage veil, of white and gold flowers, most artistically arranged by her kind friends, was placed in front of the altar. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were among the guests, but the crowd was so great that it was quite impossible to distinguish the make or quality of the dresses, more than the fact that the bride was very rich and pretty. After the ceremony they drove to the residence of her brother, Mr. Sherman Rogers, Rupert street, where they were served with a sumptuous repast, after which they were accompanied by their friends to the evening train, where, on their departure, they were amply showered with rice and good wishes, to the tune of excellent music by the Amherst brass band, who were out in force to honor the occasion. Another most interesting event is to come off shortly, but I regret to say, it is to be a home event.

On Thursday, Mrs. J. A. Dickey gave an afternoon tea, in honor of Miss Conie's birthday; the weather was delightful and the amusements on the large lawn were charmingly enjoyed, after partaking of a delicious tea within doors.

Miss Jessie Rumsey has also returned from the shore.

Mr. Chas. Eason, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Halifax was in town last week.

A number of young people started off early Wednesday morning for Spa Springs and after spending a delightful day returned home in the cool of the evening, enlivening the way with college songs, parades and games.

The tea meeting at Margareville, on the same day attracted many not only from Bridgetown, but from all over the country, and I believe was quite a success.

Mr. Edward Craig met with a serious accident to his wrist last week.

A very pretty and interesting wedding took place at the Gordon Memorial Presbyterian church at the States, and Mr. R. Miller, formerly of Bridgetown, but now in Annapolis. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Quirk, while Mr. Chas. Eason, of Halifax, supported the groom. Both bride and groom being favorites with the people, the church, the organ, and the happy couple stood, with well wished long before the hour. Her hair was very prettily arranged with maiden hair tress and chrysanthemums, and she carried a bouquet of the same tied with white ribbons. She was given away by her uncle, Mr. James Quirk. The bridesmaid's dress was green cashmere, trimmed with white lace, and she carried a bouquet of the same. The bridesmaid was exceedingly becoming and stylish.
