CHASE

Pains in the Back That Mere Kidney Remedies Could

Not Reach—The Liver as Well as the Kidneys were Diseased.

Relying on the old theory that backache comes entirely from diseased kidneys, many have doctored away at the kidneys, year after year, and suffered on and on, not knowing the fallacy of the theory which they had been led to accept as true.

Nearly every theory has some truth to rest on. So, when it is said that backache comes from discrdered kidneys part of the truth is told. It should also be added that backache comes from a torpid sluggish liver.

Diseased.

Relying on the old theory that backacie comes entirely from diseased kidneys, and particles of the comes entirely from diseased kidneys, and particles of the comes of the particle of the theory which have decided away at the and on, not after year, in fallacy of the theory which have decided away at the and on, not have greatly as the particle of the particle of the theory has not and on, not have greatly as the particle of the particle of the theory has not been led to accept at the bedshift.

Feb. 23.—The Old Felis: Corcert, to which we have all been looking forward with so much enturing and the most sanguine expectations and on Monday evening the Opera Honse was invested to its utmost capacity with an expectant an isence. When the curtain went up at 8.30 the grand entree was made, the Old Felix came out in sincle file walked across the stage, made a courtesty or bowed politicly and disappeared. Many wars the cumments made as to who made the finest appearance and among so many who were all well made up it dis seem hard to particularise, but everyone yie ded the palm, among the gentlemen, to Mr. Arche Tibbits, his make up was simply perfection, Mr. Gro. Adams was particularly good as a Quaker, but all were good and it seems hardly fair to single any out.

Mrs. Frank Cooper was one of the best among the ladies and might well have been taken for a court lady in the Queen Anne Perich, as sho Miss May Hillyard who looked very pretty her tall slight figure showing off well her high powdered coffure. Miss Flossie Wilson, looked a picture in her quaint costume, Miss Wiley vas very demure and sweet as ahe ast behind her spinning wheel industriously spinning, but it would take too i ag to mention all for all looked well. And Lang Syte was the first number with a chorus of firty voices, Mr. C. H. B. Fisher as leader. Mrs. Blackmer, Miss Ethel Bourne has gone to St. John to visit Mrs. Faddock.

Mrs. Ketchum gave a five o'clock tea last Wednessay atternoon at Elmorest when she entertained large party of friends, Mrs. Brad Winslow and Mrs. Mrs. R. F. Foster gave a pleasant toa and book party on Friday afternoon for Miss Emmerson. The prises were won by Miss Bourne first, Miss Stella Sheuman and Miss Ballay were tie on second. They played off and Miss Sheuman wen.

Mrs. Blackmer, Mrs. Blackmer, Mrs. Browler, Mr. F. Cooper, and Mr. Mont Wiley all sang solos which were liberally applanded. A Quartette composed of Misses Nan Thompson, and Margaret Johnston, Massis. A. R. Tibbits and Fred Richards ang—Comp. where, my love lies dreaming—and another quartette of the same ladies with Messrs. Foster and Cooper gave the Kerry dunce, all were well received. The duett—"Consin Jedditan" by Mrs. Forbes and Miss Cowperthwaite was loudly applauded, "Grandma" Advice" (a character song) by Miss Helen Martin was very quaint the fair singer looked her part to perfection and received great applause. "Darby and Joan"—Duett, by Mrs. F. B. Edgecombe and Mr. Frank Cooper, was one of the best of the evening and Mrs. Edgecombe far excelled her former efforts.
