

DR. HANSON REPORTS YEAR JUST CLOSED MOST PROSPEROUS ON RECORD; 2 HONORARY DEGREES

In the Owen Museum of Fine Arts an exceptional amount of work has been done. A very pleasing feature is the earnestness shown and talent manifested by the students.

During the year a Normal School class for teachers and a public school class for boys and girls was formed. This department is becoming a very important one.

Well Earned Diploma. The work of Miss Dora Knight of Amherst, this year's graduate, shows that her diploma has been well earned.

Prof. Hammond's Work. The work of Prof. Hammond, R. C. A., is more interesting than ever. One beautiful painting from his brush is a scene on the Tantalus Marshes.

A Graduating Supper. At the supper given last night in the university residence, in honor of the graduating class, one hundred and thirty persons were present.

The King—Proposed by R. St. C. Hanson, Harold—N. B. & P. E. I. Conference. The Ladies—Proposed by J. T. Davis '10; responded to by J. H. Beazley, '01, and L. H. Jewett, '09.

The Alumni—Proposed by J. S. Astbury, '10; responded to by H. F. S. Paisley, M. A., R. F. Bell, B. A., Faculty and Institution—Proposed by F. W. Fenwick, '11; responded to by J. N. Ritchey, '09.

Our Next Meeting—Proposed by C. A. Oulton, '09. Auld Lang Syne—Proposed by R. B. Hanson, class of '09, announced that he was authorized to state that his class would endow a scholarship, amount and conditions of award to be announced later.

Mr. John C. Douglas, class of '07, Mayor of Glouce Bay, N. S., announced that he would find work for all engineering students during the summer vacation, in connection with the iron and coal industries of Cape Breton. In the past the engineering students have found it difficult to find employment during the vacation. This offer of Mr. Douglas is therefore of great value to them.

This year's graduating class has decided to offer an annual regatta, a gold medal in the class in logic and psychology. The last student concert was given this morning before a large audience. The following is the programme:

Graham, Edwin Ernest—Centre-ville, N. S. Harper, Blanche—Port Elgin, N. B. Hooper, Harold—Oxford, N. S. Jewett, Leon Harold—Waterville, N. B. Lord, Goldwin Smith—Deer Island, N. B. Lockhart, John Humphrey—Moncton, N. B. McCully, Robert Chesley—Bathurst, N. B. Oulton, Charles Albert—Lorneville, N. S. Rand, Ivan Cleveland—Moncton, N. B. Ritchey, Josiah Norman—Riverport, N. S. Riple, Daisy Mercedes—Nappan, N. S. Tyler, Charles Morrison—Port George, N. S. Wagon, George—Chipman—Castalia, Grand Manan.

Black, A. (in course) Black, Harold Garnet, (B. A. '07)—Pugwash, N. S. Douglas, John Carey, (B. A. '07)—Glouce Bay, C. B. Glenn, J. A. (B. A. '08, B. Sc. '09)—Yarmouth, N. S. Outerbridge, Howard Wilkinson, (B. A. '07)—Hamilton Bermuda. Pinecock, James Clayton, (B. A. '08)—Dorchester, N. B. 'Smiley, John Stanley, (B. A. '07)—Milltown, N. B. Honors in Mathematics, English, Philosophy.

Hockin, Charles Garnett, (B. A. '05)—Dartmouth, N. S. Borden, Rev. Arthur Cummins, (B. A. '05)—Berwick, N. S. Chappell, Rev. Benjamin, (B. A. '73)—Tokyo, Japan. Certificates in Science. Davis, Ira Truman—Amherst, N. S. Eiderkin, Vernon Copeland—Parrish, N. S. Hood, Clarence Killam—Yarmouth, N. S. Lumsden, James Freeman—Baddeck, N. S. McDouall, Charles Gordon—Moncton, N. B. McKenzie, Kenneth King—Sackville, N. B. Smith, Willard Roy, (B. A. '05)—St. John, N. B. Young, John Brookings—Kentville, N. S.

Certificates in Theology. Jewett, Leon Harold—N. B. & P. E. I. Conference. Ritchey, Josiah Norman—N. S. Conference. Royle, Harry—Nfld. Conference. Steacie, George Alexander—Nfld. Conference. Webber, William Henry—Nfld. Conference. The Honorary Degrees. The two honorary degrees given by Mt. Allison this year were earned by Dr. Chappell and Dr. Borden. Both have been engaged in educational work in that Empire, the latter for a dozen years, the former much longer.

Dr. Ben. Chappell was born in P. E. Island, and bears the name of one of the Methodist pioneers in that province. He graduated from Mt. Allison with the class of 1873, with Judge White as one of his classmates, taking his M. A. degree in 1881. Entering New Brunswick ministry, Mr. Chappell had several pastorates, including that of Carmarthen St. Church, St. John. Going west, he was for a time pastor of the congregation of British Columbia. Thence he was attracted to Japan where he joined the staff of the Aoyama Gakuin (the last word means college) a large English-speaking institution established in Tokyo by the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States. Of this school, Dr. Chappell is now the dean. He is also one of the leading preachers in the English colony, and is greatly respected in the whole community.

In dealing with the Japanese authorities and in his relations with the general public, Dr. Chappell has displayed great sagacity. He has been regarded as one of the most scholarly of the teaching fraternity in Tokyo. Dr. Chappell's twin daughters, born in Japan, are in the Freshman class at Mt. Allison University.

Dr. A. C. Borden. Arthur C. Borden is a native of Annapolis, Nova Scotia, and is a cousin or second cousin of the leader of the Federal Opposition and of the Minister of Militia. He took his arts course at Mt. Allison (B. A., 1885, M. A., 1895). He also took a theological course (B. D., 1891). After taking two or three sessions in the Nova Scotia conference, Mr. Borden went to Japan. This was in 1896. For seven years thereafter Mr. Borden was a professor in the theological department of the Japanese College at Tokyo, an institution in connection with the Canadian Mission. He acquired a knowledge of the native language, and became a successful preacher in Japanese. After six years of service Mr. Borden returned to Canada for a year's furlough. Returning to Japan in 1904, he was appointed superintendent of the Japanese mission field, which placed him in charge of a large number of native clergy. During this four year period, he spent a considerable time at Kofu in the interior, as a superintendent of the district in the absence of the regular official. Last year Mr. Borden and his family returned, and he has now accepted a call to the pastorate of the church at Grand Pre, near his birthplace.

SPECIAL TO THE STANDARD. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—With 1,000 French immigrants on board the big liner Germania, thirteen days out from Naples for New York, crews in port tonight about 10 o'clock. The ship sailed from Naples on May nineteenth, and shortly after passing Gibraltar ran into strong head winds which delayed her progress, and the supply ran short, so Captain Salmon decided to come to Halifax. Among the passengers was W. C. Bond, American Consul in Kopenhagen Island, formerly consul in Arabia.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—With 1,000 French immigrants on board the big liner Germania, thirteen days out from Naples for New York, crews in port tonight about 10 o'clock. The ship sailed from Naples on May nineteenth, and shortly after passing Gibraltar ran into strong head winds which delayed her progress, and the supply ran short, so Captain Salmon decided to come to Halifax. Among the passengers was W. C. Bond, American Consul in Kopenhagen Island, formerly consul in Arabia.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Grand Jury this afternoon brought in a true bill in the indictment of Walter M. Carruthers, ex-postmaster of Kentville for criminal libel in the charge preferred against that gentleman by Sir Frederick W. Borden. Carruthers was arrested at the instance of Sir Frederick last October, during the Dominion elections campaign. Most people got a genuine surprise when they learned today that an important witness in this case was in their midst ready to take the stand.

SENSATIONAL EVIDENCE SUBMITTED IN LIBEL SUIT. SIR FRED. BORDEN HAS BROUGHT THE JUDGE'S ADDRESS.

The judge made a comprehensive and impartial address to the Grand Jury. The jury were to inquire whether Carruthers had handed out the libel which was contained in the Eye-Opener, of Calgary, to any person. His Lordship read from the information which the young man of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Senator Wood's Offer. Senator Wood here stated that he had already one chair on his hands which had been ordered to the extent of fifteen thousand dollars. The same would be sufficient to provide a full salary and was his intention to contribute the amount necessary to sustain the professorship. The Senator said that

He Second Letter. The judge then brought the attention of the jury to the following paragraph from Mr. Allison's second letter. "I went down to Montreal myself and hired the Montreal secret police. Then everything came out. He was keeping her in a boarding house at 822 Pallon (Palace) street, which the information sets forth was written in the sense of imputing that the said Sir Fred. W. Borden, was improperly keeping a daughter of the Maria Allison at a house in Montreal for immoral and discreditable purposes. These are the allegations, Mr. Justice Drysdale said which charge Sir Frederick Borden with immorality in private life while he was a public man. H. H. Wickwire, K. C. and W. E. Roscoe, K. C. are acting for the prosecution and J. J. Ritchie, K. C., of Halifax, for the defence.

Will Visit Capital Near August 1. City Engineer William Murdoch returned yesterday from his trip through New England where he had been a guest of the Hassam Paving Company of Worcester, Mass. Ald. McGoldrick is the only member of the St. John delegation who has not yet returned. He and Mrs. McGoldrick are spending a few days visiting before coming back to St. John. The alderman will be back by Friday.

Two Pavements. Engineer Murdoch examined pavements laid by the Hassam Company, and also by the Warren Company. The two pavements are similar in construction. Broken stone is the foundation in both cases. The Hassam Company, however, uses cement as a top course, the other uses a preparation of tar, the pavement being called bitulite.

Not For Hills. "How would such pavements suit the hills of St. John," the engineer was asked by a Standard reporter. "Not at all," he answered. "What we want for hills is block pavement. Everything which we examined when away was laid on level streets."

Pythianism Booming in This City. Pythianism has taken a boom in St. John this year as the lodges have increased by large numbers during the term just closing. On Monday evening St. John Lodge conferred the rank of Knight on seven Esquires and to-night Union Lodge confers the rank of Knight on eight Esquires. A large attendance is expected and the work will be done by the long form team of the lodge.

Special to The Standard. Speaking at a banquet tendered him this evening by the members of the reform club, Hon. Lomer Gouin, Premier of the province of Quebec, stated that in the future the policy of his government would be to prevent the exportation of pulp wood from Crown Lands to the United States. The interest of the individual might suffer, but he was convinced that the policy would be beneficial to the people of the province.

Special to The Standard. There was a very interesting game of baseball played on the Victoria grounds last evening between the Victuallers and the Customs House staff, which resulted in a victory for the Victuallers, with a score of 14 to 12. The game was pretty fair all around but Cronin, Colegan and Carr were the star players. Cronin made a nice double play by catching a fly and putting a man on on second. Colegan was the star batter, and Carr had no errors and did grand stand playing. Rev. Mr. Titus umpired in a satisfactory manner.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The local police have so far reached no conclusion concerning the disappearance of Todd Brewer Monday night. Clonus said to belong to the missing man have been found at St. Mary's on a raft. It is thought he is drowned.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old students be made to this effect. This followed Ralph Bell, of Calgary, who stated that they were prepared to take a fifteen year endowment insurance of the members, the proceeds to be devoted to this fund. In five years from now arrangements would be made to pay five hundred dollars of the same amount. Professor Hunter then offered one hundred and twenty-five dollars. He was next announced that Messrs. Hanson, Webb and Douglas, of the class of 1899, would contribute $125 each, within the next five years.

Special to The Standard. Halifax, N. S., June 1.—The Alumni Society meeting this afternoon a movement for the establishment of a new chair in the University was fairly started. The class of 1894 may be credited with the promotion of the enterprise. At the graduating class dinner some time during the night taken, when the young men of that class undertook to raise five hundred dollars in the next five years. At the Alumni meeting today H. Strothard, president of that class, announced what he and his classmates proposed to do. Afterwards Winthrop Bell spoke more fully, pointing out that Mr. Allison needed especially two chairs in economics and one in modern languages. He proposed that the Alumni chair in one of these subjects be provided, and that a vigorous canvass of old