A Bowder Salled on Victorian.

A. Bowder, who has recently been appointed provincial government agent in Great Britain, will sall for his new home by the steamer Victorian accompanied by his family. Mrs. Bowder and children will join the steamer here today, but Mr. Bowder may go to Halifax by rail, as he is now in Fredericton on business and may not get away in time to connect with the steamer at this port.

Have Your New House Funigated.

The Board of Health wishes it to be known that they will gladly funigate any houses or rooms which are being vacated by persons afflicted with tuberculosis, that will be occupied by other families and persons. This is considered as a safe move toward preventing the spread of the disease. The board would be glad to hear from any persons who are contemplating moving into new homes, and are desirous of having the rooms funigated before taking possession.

A New Stock Company.

Death of Mrs. Louisa Mackay.

Mrs. Louisa Mackay, widow of Captain Henry Needham Mackay and mother of H. C. Mackay, of this city, died suddenly last evening at herhome 125 Duke street. Mrs. Mackay had been in ill health for some time, but her condition was not regarded as serious and last evening she was able to take dinner as usual. After dinner she retired early and passed away shortly afterwards. Mrs. Mackay was a native of England, but had lived in St. John for upwards of forty years. She was very well known especially in musical circles and the sympathy of many friends will go out to her surviving relatives. She leaves one son, W. H. C. Mackay, of the C. P. R. city ticket office here and two daughters, miss Florence, at home and Louise, in New York.

PLEDGED TO DRIVE SALOON OUT OF CITY AND COUNTY

Strong Resolution Passed By Local Branch of Temperance Federation Last Evening---Lively Discussion at Lack of Zeal in Recent Local Option Fight---Officers Elected.

The members of the St. John county branch of the N. B. Temperance Federation met in Christadelphian hall, last evening, elected officers for the ensuing year and considered at considerable length their action in regard to the question of local option in St. John. After a lengthy discussion, a resolution re-affirming the federation's platform of complete probibition as the only remedy for the evils of the liquor traffic was passed unanimously.

It was a lengthy session and one of the most important ever held by the deteration's local branch. The session was a private one and precautions were taken to prevent eavesdropping, the door of the hall was locked and a young man at the door took care to see that there were no listeners to the discussion.

The Resolution.

After the meeting was over he informed The Standard that the following resolution had been passed:

Whereas in the opinion of this federation the only ultimate and effecting resolution had been passed:

Whereas in the opinion of this federation the only ultimate and effecting resolution had been passed:

Whereas in the opinion of this federation the only ultimate and effecting resolution the original remedy for the evils accruing through the rum traffic is total or absolute prohibition, therefore resolution gresolution the second and the resolution was appointed as follows: J.
