RESPECTED CITIZEN HAS PASSED AWAY

St. George, Sept. 12.—St. George lost one of its best known and most respected citizens last week in the death of Alex. Milne. He was born at Lomax, Scotland, in 1853, and came to Canada in 1873 with the granite cutters who came here to work for the Bay of Fundy Granite Co. In 1878 he, with Alex. G. Milne, Wm. Coultas and James Watt, formed the original firm of Milne, Coultas & Co., of which he was the last survivor.

Mr. Milne was the dean of the granite business in St. George and for 25 years was managing director of Milne, Coultas & Co. A man of kindly disposition and highly thought of in the community, he will be greatly missed. A widow, one daughter, Mrs. Metzerau, a son, A. G. Milne of Hartford, and a grandson are left to mourn him here, and in Peterhead, Scotland, an aged mother, two sisters and one brother survive him.

OBITUARY

Joseph Court.

Many friends in all parts of the city will be sorry to hear of the death of Joseph Court of the firm of Court Bros., which occurred yesterday morning at his home on Portland street. Deceased was sixty-one years of age and had been ill for more than a year. Surviving him are his wife, who was Miss Andrews of this city, one daughter, Jessie, at home, and a brother, William, the remaining member of the firm, and two sisters. He was a son of the late Joseph Court, who was in the meat business at the same stand, and was succeeded by his two sons under the present firm name. The funeral will take place on Friday. Service will be conducted by Rev. G. A. Kuhring and interment will be in Fernhill.

Roy C. Swatbridge.

Roy C. Swatbridge, son of the late Captain William Swatbridge, and formerly of this city, died at his home at Brooklyn, New York, on Sunday last. He went to New York about five or six years ago, but has always been an annual visitor to his native home. Mr. Swatbridge was about 30 years of age, and was married in Brooklyn only last May.

George H. Duval.

A telegram received yesterday by James P. Duval, conveyed the sad news of the death of his eldest son, George H. Duval, which occurred at his home in Boston. No particulars as to the cause of death were received. The deceased was in his forty-first year, was a resident of this city for the greater part of his life, removing to Boston about twelve years ago. Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers and one sister. The brothers are Foster P., of this city, and E. William of Quincy, Mass. Another brother, Rev. L. M. Duval, is a missionary in Africa. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

ELKS TRIBUTE TO LATE J. FRED SHAW

Resolution Regretting His Death Adopted by Lodge at Meeting on Monday Evening Last.

At a meeting of St. John Lodge, No. 7, C. B. P. O. Elks held Monday evening, Sept. 11th, in their lodge rooms Charlotte street, the following resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, in view of the loss sustained by the decease of our late brother, J. Fred Shaw, and the still heavier loss to those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it Resolved, that it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say, that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.
Resolved, that this lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to aid and assist the sick or distressed members of the lodge, an active member of this society and one who took a deep interest in its welfare.
Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to his family in their affliction.
Resolved, that the resolutions be placed upon the records of the lodge and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother.
(Signed) L. R. ROSS, Exalted Ruler.
W. S. JEWETT, Recording Secretary.

The funeral of James McGowan who was killed in Warners Mill on Monday last took place yesterday morning from his late residence Chesley street to St. Peter's church where funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Holland C. S. R. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery. Among the many beautiful floral tributes received was a wreath from C. M. B. A. branch 482 of which deceased was a member.

J. Boutiller.

The funeral of J. Boutiller took place yesterday from Long wharf, Rev. H. D. Marr conducted the services and interment was in the Church of England burying ground.

Andrew H. Courtney.

The funeral of Andrew H. Courtney took place yesterday from his late residence Dorchester street. Rev. Mr. Wentworth conducted the services and interment was in Fernhill.

BREAK WITH THE PARTY THAT WOULD BREAK WITH THE EMPIRE.

LUTHER SMITH IS IN FIGHTING TRIM

Reports Circulated by Enemy, Yesterday, that He Would Retire on Account of Ill Health, Without Foundation.

Rumors were put in circulation yesterday that Luther Smith, the Conservative candidate in Sunbury-Queens, had retired from the contest on the ground of ill health and would not be nominated in Gagetown today. This is the latest campaign fiction circulated by the camp followers of Col. McLean. There is not a word of truth in the story. Mr. Smith has recovered his health and has been out in his constituency for some days. Reports of the enthusiasm with which he has been received indicate a sweeping victory at the polls on the 21st.

TO PASS THE PACT WOULD BE TO ACKNOWLEDGE OUR DEPENDENCE ON THE UNITED STATES.

Brooks—McKee.

Miss Luella A. McKee, of Peterborough, Queens County, was united in marriage to Walter F. Brooks of Gagetown last evening. The ceremony, which took place at the residence of Geo. McKinnon, 66 Kennedy street, in the presence of a few friends, was performed by Rev. B. H. Nobles. After the marriage service supper was served to the guests. The bride received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will make their home at Gagetown.

IF THE PACT WILL STAND THE LIGHT OF TRUTH, THEN WHY ARE THE LIBERAL ORGANS DOING SO MUCH LYING ABOUT IT?

MAY YOHE TO WED AGAIN.

MAY YOHE.

It is reported on what is considered excellent authority that May Yohe, formerly the wife of Lord Francis Hope and Putnam Bradlee Strong, is to wed "Jack" McAuliffe, a one time pugilist of prominence. Miss Yohe is at present appearing on the vaudeville stage.

HOW TO GAIN IN WEIGHT.

You know you are too thin—you eat and eat, but never get an ounce fatter. Nerves are weak, color is bad, strength seems exhausted. It's not hard to get fat. You must eat more, digest more, exercise more. Try Ferruzone and watch your appetite grow. It turns all you eat into nutriment and building material—fills your veins with rich, red blood—gives you ambition and vigor. For a tissue builder, a fattening tonic, one that restores permanently, there is nothing to compare with Ferruzone. Try it and see. 50 cts. at all dealers.

EVEN FOXY GRANDPA LAURIER CAN'T FOOL ALL THE PEOPLE AT THE TIME.

EVE OF NOMINATION FINDS PARTY READY

Special to The Standard. Newcastle, Sept. 13.—The eve of nomination finds the Conservative forces in excellent condition and the situation augurs well indeed for the success of candidate Hon. Donald Morrison. There has been a remarkable turnover in favor of the Conservative candidate.

This evening Hon. Mr. Flemming and Hon. Mr. Morrison are holding a meeting at Blackville, which is being largely attended. Organizer Butler has perfected arrangements for several meetings to close the campaign. Loyal supporters are openly uneasy over the outcome, and there seems little doubt that Northumberland will be in line against the dangerous reciprocity pact.

Funeral Today.

The funeral of Mrs. E. J. Armstrong will be held today from her late residence at Fair Vale. Interment will take place in Fernhill. Services will be held at the house at 1:30 p. m. Friends from the city who wish to attend can go to Fair Vale on the train leaving St. John at 12:15, returning at 2:10.

Marr-Williams.

A quiet wedding was celebrated last night at the residence of Edgar Vincent, 11 Wentworth street, when Miss Elizabeth Williams was united to Wellington Marr by Rev. Wellington Camp. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was beautifully attired in a Princess costume of blue silk. Mr. and Mrs. Marr will reside on Peters street.
