Had "B" Beer Mixed With Lemon Extract

George Morell Charged in Police Court With Manufacturing Liquor—Sydney Kilmister Tried for Picking Pockets—Several Other Cases Before the Court.

The first case to be taken up in the police court yesterday afternoon was that of George Morell, of 73 Erin street, who was charged with manufacturing liquor without a license and with keeping liquor for illegal purposes.

Inspector Merryfield stated that he went to the defendant's house in company with Inspector McAlinh and three of the city detectives near midnight Saturday in consequence of information received. On searching the premises six glasses were found on the dining room table containing the drugs of "B" beer and lemon extract, 12 gallons of beer were brewing in the kitchen, and under a mattress they found a bottle of lemon extract.

He had been outside the house on Palm Sunday and had heard a bunch of men and women singing and singing inside. When the inspectors entered the house they found Morell and a woman he called his housekeeper, Mrs. Frank Coleman, inside; there was 12 to 14 of change in silver lying on the kitchen table. The witness said he had seen men going into the defendant's house and come out staggering. The house, he added, was the driest he had ever been in.

Detective Biddiscombe said he went to the defendant's house with the inspectors late Saturday night; the door was opened by the defendant, Mrs.
Coleman was also in the house. Two crockets of beer were brewing in the kitchen; in another room there was two big jugs, and in a closet there was over two dozen bottles of beer.

On the dining table there were several beer bottles partly empty, as well as some lemon extract, in all there was from 12 to 15 gallons of beer in the house. The house was in a filthy condition; beer and lemon extract could be smelt off the defendant's breath. The reputation of the housekeeper was bad, and she kept moving from house to house; the police were preparing to raid the place.

Inspector McAlinh corroborated the evidence of the two previous witnesses and the case was allowed to stand over till Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

The case of Sydney Kilmister charged with stealing $1.80 from the pocket of Thomas Guy in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday was then taken up. W.
R. Scott appearing for the defense.

Thomas Guy, manager of the bank of Montreal's Haymarket Square branch, stated that he changed into his "gym" suit in the Y. M. C. A. locker room on Saturday at a little after four o'clock in the afternoon.

He then went to the "gym" to play volleyball, and when he returned to put on his clothes he heard that a thief had been caught in the room, and looking in his pocket found that $1.80 which he left there was gone.

The next witness an employee of the Y. M. C. A. said that he was engaged to keep an eye on the locker room to see that no thieving went on in consequence of information he received to the locker room at a little after five o'clock Saturday afternoon and saw the defendant there undressing. The witness went into the physical director's room and through a window built for the purpose looked out into the locker room. He saw the defendant going through the clothes hanging on the wall and transferring articles from the clothing to his own. Witness then reported the matter. This was not the first time that articles had been stolen.

R. A. Pendleton, social secretary at the Y. M. C. A., said that he saw the defendant at four o'clock Saturday afternoon watching the volleyball game. In consequence of several large thefts, the Y. M. C. A. authorities had employed the previous witness as a house detective, the latter reported the theft to witness who then called up Detective Biddiscombe.

Witness had remembered seeing the defendant at the Y. M. C. A. early in January, at the time several large thefts had occurred.

Detective Biddiscombe said he was called to the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday afternoon at a little before six. He took the defendant into the office and asked him what he had done with the articles he had taken from clothing in the locker room. The defendant denied having taken anything. On searching he found $1.87 amongst which was an American quarter referred to by the first witness. The accused was remanded.

Morning Session.
In the morning nine men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were remanded to jail.
Charles Hughes pleaded guilty to being drunk and not guilty to using profane and obscene language. He was remanded.

Edward G. Douglas, arrested in the Sanitary Cafe in Charlotte street on charge of having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling, was remanded. The proprietor of the cafe was charged with allowing the illegal consumption of liquor in his place of business. The case comes up this morning at ten o'clock.

George Chatterton, charged with being drunk while in charge of an automobile on the Maritime Natl Company's wharf, was remanded.

"I Am Convinced" Says Thos. Lively

Thought Nothing Could Aid Him But Has Gained
Eighteen Pounds on Tanlac.

"To be quite frank, I didn't have much faith in Tanlac when I started on it, but now after giving it a fair trial, I don't know how to say enough in its favor," said Thomas I. Lively of Gaston Road, Dartmouth, N. S., when speaking to the Tanlac representative at Kinley's drug store in Halifax, recently.

"Ever since I was a boy I have had a weak stomach and suffered from indigestion, and of late years it had got much worse. My food always used to turn sour, beat me up with gas so that I could hardly breathe, and cause me such severe cramping pains in the pit of my stomach, that I could hardly keep at my work. I was always badly constipated, had dull heavy headaches almost every day, and spells of dizziness. When I lay down at night the gas that formed on my stomach would seem to press up into my throat and almost choke me; many a night I have had to walk the floor for hours in my effort to get relief, and some times would not get a wink of sleep all night. I went down in weight from a hundred and fifty-five, and got so weak that I would actually stagger and almost fall down at times. I was often off work for a week or two at a time and about two years ago I was so bad that I had to knock off work for six months. For twenty-four years I have been trying to find something to relieve this indigestion, but nothing seemed to help me until I tried Tanlac.

"As I've said, I didn't have much faith in it when I started, and even when I had finished the first bottle, I was thinking that it was no better than all the other medicines I had tried. But I kept on taking it, and I am mighty glad that I did, for it has made a new man of me. I have a good appetite, can eat anything, and my indigestion and stomach trouble seem entirely gone. All signs of sourness, gas or cramping pains have disappeared. I am no longer constipated, and the headaches are a thing of the past.
I sleep like a top now, and each morning get up feeling like a man refreshed. I have only been taking Tanlac for five weeks, but I have gained eighteen pounds in weight already, and haven't enjoyed such health for years past. I'm on deck for duty every day now, and my work is a pleasure instead of torture. I don't hesitate to recommend Tanlac as the best of all medicines for indigestion."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company, and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Advt.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT AT ZION CHURCH

A very successful concert was given by the Ladies' Aid of Zion Church last evening in the church school room.
The box was packed and a large number were turned away through lack of accommodation. The funds realized were considerable and will be devoted to the Ladies' Aid. The programme of the evening's entertainment follows:

Recitation—Helen Hannah.

Piano Solo—Constance Patis.

Vocal Solo—Nellie Skidmore.

Violin Duet—Messrs A. and S. Swid-more.

Play: Ladies' Aid Business Meeting at Mohawk Cross Roads, put on by Ladies' Aid of Zion Church. Twenty ladies featured in the cast.

The final number of the evening consisted of a recitation entitled "Ladies' Aid" by Miss Hannah, and a duet by Mrs. Conron and Miss Lillie Skidmore.

Miss E. Skidmore was the pianist of the evening.

Says She Cannot Praise Them Enough

MRS. GAUVIN TELLS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Says Her Back Was so Weak She Could Hardly Walk, But Now She is a Different Person.

St. Jeanne d'Arc, N. B. April 12th—(Special).—Among those in this neighborhood who are enthusiastic in their praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills is Mrs. Joseph Gauvin, a highly respected resident here.

"I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills enough," Mrs. Gauvin states.

"My back was so weak I could hardly walk. I took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now I feel a different person."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a tremendous amount of good."

Of the many persons paying their tribute of praise to Dodd's Kidney Pills it is noticeable that the great majority are women. The reason given for this is that the great majority of women's ills come from the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys, healing and strengthening them, they enable the kidneys to strain all the impurities out of the blood. Pure blood is the foundation of health.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not help weak or sick kidneys.
