REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ORGANIZATION.

The Report of the Committee on Organization was presented and read by W. Bro. Dr. Orönhyatekha.

To the R. W. Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West:

WORSHIPFUL SIR AND BRETHREN,—Your Committee on Organization beg to report that they find that the order is not in a satisfactory condition in parts of the Counties of Halton, Wentworth, Oxford, Elgin, Monck, Haldimand, Norfolk, Welland, Wellington and South Ontario.

The Committee have no doubt but in all these localities there is abundant material—old material and therefore good material, if properly worked—to place the order in a first-class condition; but your Committee are of opinion that some changes are required in the mode of procedure in organizing new lodges; and they have no doubt if the Constitution were so amended in the direction indicated by the Grand Master in his address, we would have a new era of prosperity in the history of our noble order, such as it has never before enjoyed.

But, in the meantime, until such amendments to our Constitution are secured, the Committee are of opinion that it is desirable that one or more efficient organizing officers, who are thoroughly conversant with ritualistic and unwritten work of the order, should be employed at a suitable remuneration, by the Executive to work in the counties named, for the purpose of resuscitating dormant lodges, and getting together old Orange
