The B. M. E. church continues to interest a goodly number of worshippers at the services held within its sacred precincts. On Sunday, Nov. 14, two very interesting sermons were given by the pastor, Rev. Stewart. Sub. 11 a.m. "Antediluvian Piety." Text. Gen. 6. 9. "And Noah walked with God." This is the grandest statement that can be made about man To say that one is rich or learned, or honored, is to awake more or less interest in him, but to say that he walks with God is to give him a place in the thought of his fellows; higher and grander than anything else can do. There are some facts that cannot be doubted; this is one of them: That the man whose companion in life is God, lives a life greatly superior to all other men. At 7 p.m. the text was taken from St. John 13: 35. Sub. "Our Badge of Recognition." The speaker began by saying that in these words of the text the Master gives to us the mark of a Christian, the thing that should distinguish His disciples from all others. The great need in the Church today is real "Brotherly Love." It cannot be taught to the world if we do not possess it ourselves the speaker said. Several selections appropriate for the service were rendered by the choir.

Sunday Nov. 14th is Missionary Day. A special service will be conducted by the women of our local society at 7 p.m.

The Union Thanksgiving service was well attended on Monday Nov. 8th at Grant A.M.E. Church.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gill was baptised on Sunday Nov. 7th, 3 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Best, 45 Sullivan St. Rev. F. O. Stewart of the B.M.E. Church officiated.

A very happy event took place on Oct. 1st last at the home of Mrs. Sarah Earll, Owen Sound, Ont., when her daughter, Miss Rachel Christina, became the bride of Mr. Andrew Wayman Hackley, Son of the Rev. and Mrs. Andrew W. Hackley, Toronto. They were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. E. A. Richardson pastor of the B.M.E. Church of that city in the presence of immediate relatives. Mrs. Richardson, wife of Rev. E. A. Richardson was bride's matron, while Moses Earll, brother of the bride acted as best man. The happy couple are residing in Toronto.

Backs Down On The Border Edict

Mexicali, Lower California, Mexico, Nov.—(Pacific Coast News Bureau)—After a recent conference with American Consul Bohr, Adolfo Miranda, chief of the immigration service in Mexicali, whose recent order barring Negroes from entry into Mexico for longer than a 9-hour period created national attention, modified his original order by stating that republic black Americans will be granted border permits which will entitle them to cross at any and all hours, provided they present letters of recommendation, vouching for their character and their employment if employed on the Mexican side.

In this conference with Mr. Miranda the American Consul was assured that every facility would be offered to so handle the regulations that no unnecessary hardship might be imposed upon the respectable law abiding Black American.
