

think it be, I owe something to you, for I found more than one big nugget." "Didn't I predict it?" he cried, triumphantly, shaking both my hands at once. "Upon my word," he added, looking me over, "now that I have seen you I can make excuse for Isaac. Your own mother wouldn't know you, my boy."

"I trust M. le Commissaire is satisfied?" said, turning to that functionary.

"Perfectly, monsieur. M. Dolatto has made a statement which confirms yours in every particular. I have the pleasure to set you at liberty, regretting that you should ever have been detained."

"And now," said I to Louis, as we left the building arm-in-arm, "perhaps you will tell me why you never answered my letters?"

"Parbleu! but I did. You never got mine? Then they miscarried. In the first I gave you a full, true, and particular account of your own 'murder,' which was the first piece of news I received on my return to Paris after a month's stay in England. As the nine days' wonder of your disappearance was over by that time, and the subject nearly forgotten, I thought I might as well leave you to enlighten the public when you returned. The mystery has had a dramatic denouement, thanks to Isaac, who— Parlez des anges!" he added, in an undertone, "here he is." He had been waiting for us outside. "Monseigneur Ulbach," said Louis, gravely, "allow me to present to you your 'late lamented friend,' who seems very little the worse for his sojourn among the fishes."

"Ah, monsieur!" cried Isaac, piteously, "if you could only imagine how I reproach myself!"

"Enough!" I interrupted. "Come to my hotel, and we will settle accounts at once, unless you have still some lingering doubts of my identity."

"If he has, the touch of the money will settle them," was Louis' remark.

"And you will try to forget that preposterous mistake of mine, cher monsieur?"

"No, no! it's too good a joke to be forgotten," I answered, laughing. "Whenever I speak of my return from California, you may be sure I shall tell the story of that regular accusation."

Danger in the Air.

The chilling winds, the damp atmosphere and suddenly checked perspiration, are lurking. Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam cures colds, coughs, asthma and bronchitis, and all complaints tending towards consumption.

Woolen lace is a favorite trimming for women's dresses.

Leading druggists on this continent testify to the large and constantly increasing sale of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Diet and Dyspeptic Cure, and report its excellent effects upon their customers troubled with Liver Complaint, Constipation, Indigestion, Impurity of the blood, and other ailments, and as a female medicine, it has accomplished remarkable cures.

These are little used on black silk dresses.

Useful to Know.

Anyone should know that Hagyard's Yellow Oil will give prompt relief; applied locally will stop any pain; and taken internally cures colds, asthma, croup, sore throat and most inflammatory complaints.

Woman's Suffering and Relief.

Those languid, dreary sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system, are relieved at once while the special causes of periodical pain are permanently removed. None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful, and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women.

A Postal Card Story.

I was affected with kidney and urinary trouble—
"For twelve years!"
After trying all the doctors and patent medicines I could hear of, I used two bottles of Hop Bitters.
"Bitters!"
And I am perfectly cured. I keep it "All the time!" respectfully, B. F. Booth, Salsbury, Tenn.—May 4, 1883.

BRADFORD, PA., May 8, 1875.

It has cured me of several diseases, such as nervousness, sickness at the stomach, monthly troubles, etc. I have not seen a sick day in a year, since I took Hop Bitters. All my neighbors use them.

Mrs. FANNIE GREEN.

$3,000 Lost.

"A tour to Europe that cost me $3,000, done me less good than one bottle of Hop Bitters; they also cured my wife of fifteen years' nervous weakness, sleeplessness and dyspepsia."

R. M., Auburn, N. Y.

So. BLOOMINGVILLE, O., May 1, 79.

Since I have been suffering ten years, and I tried your Hop Bitters, and it done me more good than all the doctors.

Miss S. S. BOON.

Baby Saved.

We are so thankful to say that our nursing baby was permanently cured of a dangerous and protracted constipation and irregularity of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength.

Mr. Wm. Boyd Hill, Cobourg, writes: "Having used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for some years, I have much pleasure in testifying to its efficacy in relieving pains in the back and shoulders. I have also used it in cases of croup in children, and have found it to be all that you claim it to be."

Shot or changeable fabrics are highly favored in all sorts of materials from velvets, satins, and silks to woolens.

An Excellent Report.

Hon. Jos. G. Goodridge, of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:—"I cannot express myself in sufficient praiseworthy terms of Burdock Blood Bitters which I have used for the past two years with great benefit."

Velvet ribbon makes a stylish and reasonable trimming with very little trouble.

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look into the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure; but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold? Is it not diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is folly not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a most wonderful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.

Short velvet and broche mantles in dolman style will be worn in the early Spring.

Well as Ever.

Lottie Howard writes from Buffalo, N. Y.: "My system became greatly debilitated through arduous professional duties; suffered from nausea, sick headache and biliousness. Tried Burdock Blood Bitters with the most beneficial effect. Am well as ever."
