

deux Roi des Belges, in recognition of his efforts in promoting Belgian industries in the Province of Quebec. He is a mem. of the R. C. Ch., and m. Sept., 1857, Charlotte Cécile, dau. of the late Edward Burroughs, Prothy, Québec (she d. Sept. 1887).—9 Haldimand St., Quebec: Garrison Club; Union Club.

GARROW, James Thompson, Q.C., legislator, is the s. of Edward and Rebecca Garrow, both natives of Scot., and was b. at Chippewa, Ont., Mch. 11, 1843. Ed. at Goderich High Sch., he was called to the bar, 1869, and was created a Q. C. by the Marquis of Lansdowne, 1885. He has served as Reeve of Goderich for a lengthened period, and was also Warden of Huron. A Lib. in politics, he has represented West Huron in that interest in the Ont. Assembly since g. e. 1890. He m. July, 1872, Mary Balfour, dau. of Rev. Chas. Fletcher (Presb.).—Goderich, Ont.

GARRIOCH, Rev. Alfred Campbell (Ch. of Eng.), is the s. of John Garrich, by his wife, Eliza Campbell. B. at Kildonan, Man., Feb. 10, 1848, he was ed. at the parish sch., Portage la Prairie, and studied Theol. at St. John's Coll., Winnipeg. Ordained to the priesthood by Bp. Bompas, 1875, he established the first Prot. mission in existence at Peace River, 1877. Later, he assisted in founding a training sch. for Indian children at Fort Vermilion. In 1885, he visited Eng., and while there published several translations in the Beaver Indian language, and an Eng.-Beaver and Cree vocabulary. He is now incumbent of Poplar Point and High Bluff, Man. Politically, he is a Con., and favours stringent prohibitive legislation respecting the liquor traffic. He m. Mch., 1886, Agnes B., dau. of Richard Crabbe, Portsmouth, Eng.—Poplar Point, Man.

GARSDIE, Rev. Robert (Bapt.), was b. at Headingley, Leeds, Eng., Apl. 23, 1857. Ed. at Woodstock Coll., and at the Univ. of Toronto (B.A., 1886), he studied for the ministry at the Bapt. Coll. in that city, and was ordained 1887. While attending coll., he decided to enter the mission field, and set sail for India, 1888. In the farewell service that took place, Principal Castle said of him that he was "one of the best and noblest gifts the Toronto Coll. could bestow upon India." He remained in the Telugu country for 6 yrs., meeting with much success, and also enduring hardships and persecutions. While there he wrote and published three Telugu tracts, and wrote numerous letters for denominational journals descriptive of the country. He is now pastor of Lyman St. Bapt. Ch., St. Catharines, and has received from McMaster Univ. the degree of B.Th. He m. 1887, Margt., dau. of the Rev. Joseph Denovan (Bapt.) Politically, he is a Reformer.—St. Catharines, Ont.

GARTSHORE, Lt.-Col. William Moir, is the s. of John Gartshore, Dundas, Ont., and was b. there, Apl. 3, 1853. Ed. at the Galt Coll. Inst., under the late Dr. Tassie, he has been for yrs. in commercial life, and is now V.-P. of the McClary Co., manufacturers of stoves and furnaces, London, Toronto, Winnipeg, Montreal and Vancouver, B.C. He is also Presdt. of the People's Building and Loan Co., London, and was an ald. of that city, 1891-92. Lt.-Col. G. entered the V. M. service 1874, and possesses a 1st class r. s. c. cert. and a 1st class v. b. cert. He commanded a co. of the 7th Fusiliers during the N.-W. rebellion, 1885 (medal), was promoted major, July, 1884, and was apptd. lt.-col. commanding the 1st Regt. of Husars, June 20, 1892. In Dom. politics, he is a Lib.-Con. and in Provl. politics, a Con.-Lib. He m. Dec., 1876, Catherine, 2nd dau. of John McClary, London, Ont.—London, Ont.

GARVIN, John Anketell, journalist, of Irish descent, was b. in Montreal, 1866. Ed. first at the Model Sch. there, he afterwards attended the Toronto Coll. Inst. and Toronto