

such original allowance for Road between such third and fourth Concessions, and it is desirable that all persons lawfully passing and repassing from such School house to the highway next adjacent thereto, should have a right of way over whatever portion of such original allowance for Road shall be necessary for such purpose. it is therefore further enacted, that notwithstanding any matter hereinbefore contained, all such persons shall, while such School-house continues to be used for school purposes, have such right of way over whatever portion of such original allowance for Road between such School-house and the next adjacent highway thereto, shall be convenient and reasonable required for that purpose. 5 10

Right of way reserved to a certain School house.

Public Act.

IV. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.