Above will be found the picture of a modern gun of the kind that is being used in the present war. At a glance the gun and some old trees appear to be all there is in the picture, but by careful scrutiny some soldiers' faces will be found. There are 19 of them in all. Can you find them? It is no easy task, but by patience and perseverance can be accomplished.

You may win a cash prize by doing so. Many have done this as will be shown by the names and addresses published below. If you find the faces mark each one you find with an X, cut out the picture and send it to us, together with a slip of paper on which you have written the words "I have found all the faces and marked them." Write these nine words plainly and neatly, as in case of ties, both writing and neatness will be considered factors in this contest.

This may take up a little of your time, but as there are TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash and One Hundred premiums given away, it is worth your time to take a little trouble over this matter. Remember, all you have to do is to mark the faces, cut out the picture and write on a separate piece of paper the words, "I have found all the faces and marked them."

We do not ask you to spend one cent of your money in order to enter this contest.

Send your answer at once; we will reply by Return Mail telling you whether your answer is correct or not, and we will send you a complete Prize List, together with the names and addresses of persons who have recently received over Two Thousand Dollars in Cash Prizes from us, and full particulars of a simple condition that must be fulfilled. (This condition does not involve the spending of any of your money.)

Winners of cash prizes in our late competitions will not be allowed to enter this contest. This competition will be judged by two well known business men of undoubted integrity, who have no connection with this company, whose decisions must be accepted as final.

Below will be found a partial list of the names and addresses of a few persons who have won some of our larger prizes in recent contests. Although these persons are entirely unknown to us, they are our references. An enquiry from any one of them will bring the information that our contests are carried out with the utmost fairness and integrity. Your opportunity to win a good round sum is equally as good as that of anyone else, as all previous winners of cash prizes are barred from entering this contest.

1121—Ladies' Skirt, with or without Tunic and Girdle.—This style shows a tunic with plaits at the sides, and a girdle with front and back edges lapped. One could have serge and plaid woolen with the plaid for contrast. The design is also good for velveteen, broad cloth, duvetyn, wool mixtures and novelty weaves. The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure. Pattern, 10c.

1115—A Pretty Dress for Mother's Girl.—If made of blue linene, with a bit of embroidery on the yoke facing in red or white, and big buttons to match, it will be very effective. The tucker which is nice for cool days, is desirable in lawn, crepe, soft silk or batiste. The dress is a one piece model, and may be finished to close at the shoulder or in the back. The pattern is in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years.

chiffon crepe in blue is here combined. The under waist is of lace. It is cut low and with sleeve portions combined. A girdle of chiffon encircle the waist, and is draped low over the hips forming sash ends at the centre front. A pretty inexpensive gown may be fashioned from this model, in albatross in any of the new evening shades, with a simple finish of ribbon fills or embroidery. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 14, 16, 17 and 18 years. It requires 6 yards of 40 inch material for a 17 year size. Pattern, 10c.

9886—A Practical and Pleasing House or Home Dress.—Black and white checked gingham, with facings of white linene is here shown. The design would be pretty in figured lawn or dimity or in a neat percale pattern. For serviceable wear it would look well in gray or 1116—Girl's Dress with or without Girdle.—As here shown Napoleon blue garbardine serge was used, with soutache braid for trimming. If made of wash materials, there are strong serviceable galateas in plain and striped materials, Devonshire cloth in neat checks, percales in lovely patterns, and seersuckers that require no ironing. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Pattern, 10c.

1122—Ladies' One Piece Apron.—This model is very simple and easy to develop. It is cut in one piece, the back being formed by strap pieces, crossed over the centre, and fastened to the front under the arm. A neat pocket is added on the front. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: small, medium and large. If made of blue checked gingham, bindings of white on the free edges will form a neat finish. If of black alpaca, feather stitching in red or green will be neat and attractive. Pattern, 10c.

1124—A Pretty Evening or Dancing Frock.—Shadow lace over blue silk with blue striped seersucker, with collar, cuffs and facings in contrasting color. For afternoon or porch wear, there are many dainty materials, also linens and ratines, that will lend themselves admirably to this style. The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Pattern, 10c.

1134-1133—A Smart Gown for Home Calling or Business Wear.—Novelty suiting in blue and white plaid with threads of green is here becomingly developed, with blue taffeta for vest, collar, cuff and pocket trimmings. The skirt is a splendid model with its simple lines and the pockets are a convenient and practical style feature. Broad cloth, voile, velvet or corduroy are also appropriate for this model. It is composed of Ladies' Waist Pattern 1134, cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure, and Ladies' Skirt Pattern 1133, cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure.
