

"That's what the chief is looking for."

"Bright, snappy-looking letters and clean-cut, carbon copies." It's some satisfaction to sign letters that are typed through a PEERLESS Ribbon. The clear type stands out without blurs or smudges. It looks like a message from a live firm.

The copies are important too. A dirty, faint copy often obscures the very thing that should be clear. PEERLESS Carbon copies look like originals.
