

The Missionary Outlook

is my Parish.
"The World"
"The Field is"

A Monthly Advocate, Record and Review.

Vol. XV.—No. 6.]

JUNE, 1895.

[NEW SERIES.]

Field Notes.

SPECIAL attention is called to the fact that all matters pertaining to the Church and Parsonage Aid Fund are now in the hands of Rev. Dr. Griffin, treasurer of the fund, and all communications should be addressed to him.

lay missionary among the Iroquois in Muskoka. Considering his limited educational acquirements, he rendered good service, and his death will be deeply felt among the Indians.

It should be borne in mind that lay members of the General Board of Missions are now elected by the laymen in the Annual Conferences, instead of by the CHINESE PRIEST COLLECTING MONEY.

WE regret to learn of the sudden death of Mr. Angus Cooke, who succumbed to an attack of apoplexy on the 18th ult. Bro. Cooke was an Iroquois, from Oka, and for a number of years past served as lay members of the Conference Missionary Committees, as formerly. The General Board needs and should have the best and wisest men in the Church, and we trust that such will be sent.