he is getting ⁽⁴⁾ to be some boy Max told me in his last letter that he was putting a nest egg aside so that he could get married soon. Well Mr. Meighen I wish Max all the Luck and Happiness there is in the world.
I hope he will let me know when the big day comes around.

I the last time I had saw you he said you were enjoying the best of health but I'm sorry I can't say the same for him although the doctors in Brantford have every hope for him.
I see that being out of politics am asking, ⁽²⁾ would you try to find something I could make a living at, any place. I hope you will excuse my position and my rashness, but you are the only one I know of that would assist me.

I was at the dedication of the new Ambassador Bridge yesterday. There is a great amount of enthusiasm over the project there it sure is a great step. The oration by Gov. Green put it over great.

I thought Max would like to see a few snaps of the baby
