Mr. W. Laird, Indian Agent,
Grouard, Alta

Dear Sir,

Samuel Sakeré a treaty man residing just now at Entrenne Alta, asked me to write you in his behalf. He belonged to a band of which Francois Charland was or is chief. This man is well known he tells me around Horse Lake. He is the son of Edouard and a brother of Lorison.

He is married and has four children, but he cannot afford to go there for his treaty money. He has not drawn his treaty money for seven years. I wish that you could help him out by sending him treaty money he may be entitled to. I am afraid he is affected with tuberculosis for he feels so weak that he can't work and has no relatives up here to extend to him a helping hand.

Trusting that you will see your way clear to assist him in his great need;

I remain

yours sincerely

F. P. Beaudry
