Please inform yourself of the provisions of the "Water Act" of British Columbia and make a careful investigation of the good intentions, wants and rights and of the Indians regarding water for irrigation. If you are of the opinion they should receive encouragement and help and that it will be necessary to provide them with a license to cross other lands with their ditch or to comply in any other respect with the Provincial Law, kindly report in full especially as to these requirements and the cost thereof which the Department may be expected to pay.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
