shone, and in the end grew cold! But through the Holy Ghost it is possible to keep the faith, to end in more than the passion of youth, to die testifying, and not, as Voltaire reports of Cavalier, “much failed of his first enthusiasm.” It is the duty of spiritual guides to know the difficulties of their time, that they may help others, but for themselves they should seek to die as deaf to the reviling and the mocking around them as Christ was when He sank to His last sleep on the Cross.
