YOUR EYES

Are surely worth more to you than the price of a pair of glasses. If you value your eyes have them properly fitted at once. Delay and your eyes will become so bad that no glasses will help them, then you will regret it the rest of your days. This is true every word of it. Do not trust travelling Opticians and peddlars to fit you with glasses. They get your money and you get the experience. This we know because it is told us by people that comes to us for glasses after having bought of the Spectacle peddler. Our Optician is a graduate of the Detroit Optical College and is fully equipped with all the modern conveniences. We will examine your eyes free of charge, at the sign of the Big Clock.

NESTLE'S FOOD.

Nestle's Food protects baby against colic, cholera infantum and the ill effects of "second summer." Physicians say that Nestle's Food babies are so nourished that "Not Weather can't affect them." Baby's health depends on baby's food. Nestle's Food means healthy babies. Sample (enough for 8 meals) sent free on request. THE NESTLE CO., LIMITED, CHAMBER, SWITZERLAND.

OPHTHALMIC.

It is all very well, Bobby Burns, to declare That you wish that the power was given to you The gift to see our curious selves In the light that other folk see us.

But methinks were the sight so wished for vouchsafed We would some of us die of the shock. While opticians and such in a week would be rich. And smoked glasses would be out of stock!

KEEP THE BOWELS REGULAR.

If your bowels didn't move for a week you would be prostrated. If more than one day goes by you become languid, blood gets bad, breath horribly offensive, you feel sick all over. To remedy this take Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which regulate the bowels and cure constipation. Taken at night you are well by morning. They purify and cleanse the system, prevent headache, biliousness and sick stomach. Prompt and certain are Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterbur. Per box or five for $1.00 at all dealers.

Hemorrhoids Sores.

Covering boxes with chints and French cottons is the fancy work of the day. The smooth surfaced box is bought from the factory and covered with stitches and glue. Some people prefer starch paste to any other method. The dainty woman has anywhere from two to twelve of these in her living room. They hold everything—valves, gloves, ribbons, visiting cards, invitations, amateur photographs and manure implements.

NOT SLEEPING WELL.

Without sleep there can be no bodily or mental vigor, consequently sleeplessness is a dangerous condition. Nothing so surely restores sleep as Ferrozone, it's harmless, just a nourishing, strengthening tonic. Ferrozone vitalizes every part of the body, makes the nerves hardy, completely rebuilds the system. The cause of sleeplessness is removed—health is restored—you can work, eat, sleep—feel like new after using Ferrozone. Don't put off—Ferrozone costs 50c. per box at all dealers; get it to-day.

When a man thinks he is smart enough to outwit others he becomes a fit subject for schemers.

To put the brake on the wagon going down the hill is a help to the horse, when the wagon is heavily loaded. But what driver would think of applying the brake to a loaded wagon going up hill? If he did, his sensible horses would probably balk. Many a man is in the condition of pulling a load up hill with the brake set against him. When his stomach is out of order, and the allied organs of digestion and nutrition impaired in their functions, a friction is set up which has to be overcome in addition to the performance of daily duties. A foul stomach makes a foggy brain, and the man with a disordered stomach has often to grope his way through the day's business like a man in a fog. He forgets appointments. Problems seem presented to his mind "wrong end to." This condition is entirely remedied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the stomach and digestive and nutritive system into a condition of perfect health, and gives a clear brain, a steady hand and a light step for the day's duties. When constipation clogs the channels of the body, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will work an effectual cure of that disastrous disease.

Even after a man has reason to be satisfied he delights to search for something over which he can worry.

A MENTAL PUZZLE.

Double Consciousness Developed by an Attack of Illness.

Speaking of instances of double consciousness, Mental Science notes the following case: The patient was a girl, twenty-two years of age. She suffered from some affection that may have been meningitis, but this is not known positively. She then developed acute maniacal excitement. During this illness the patient presented some remarkable changes of personality—such as are seen in hysteria. The author does not term the curious manifestations by this name, but describes some nine or more different varieties of personality manifested by the patient that are quite interesting. Thus the patient had spells of blindness, deafness, paralysis, etc. The most interesting of these manifestations, because the least easy to explain, was the patient's ability to draw the full figure of a nurse, etc., during her spell of blindness. To convince himself that this was the actual case the author held a book between the patient's eyes and the sheet of paper on which she was drawing or put his hand before her eyes while she was drawing without in any way interfering with her drawing. Her sense of touch was highly sensitive during this period; she could detect a line drawn across her drawing paper, dates written at the top of her drawing paper, merely by touching the paper where the intruding lines had been drawn. During her normal state the patient could never draw either before or after her illness.

FRIENDSHIPS.

Differences Between Those of Men and Those of Women.

One difference between men and women in their relation to friendship is that a man's friends like him in spite of himself; a woman's friends or acquaintances care for her because of herself, because of her powers of agreeability, her tact or her charm.

A man may be as grouchy as he likes on occasion. He may swear at his best friend and treat him as cavalierly as he pleases, yet that friend will wait in patience for "the old man to come round," knowing well that beneath his surface are a kindly heart and a willingness to share a last crust with him.

With her friends a woman may take no such liberty. The kind heart and the good intentions count for nothing beside a woman's bad manners and lack of taste in the treatment of her nearest and dearest, and condemnation is swift and sure. Nothing excuses her, and she is rarely forgiven. Nor would she expect to be forgiven. Not possessing that large patience undeniably necessary to friendship or the power of forgiving and waiting for the "grouch" to blow over, she does not look for forgiveness when she has sinned against these laws of a woman's making.

Rather she gives up her friend and contents herself quite placidly with another. But then, as we said before, a woman has no genius for friendship.

Languorous Hedda!

It seems, by the way, almost forgotten that it was with a business of Hedda as a dramatist. His travesty of "Hedda Gabler" was one of the most delicious pieces of fooling ever seen at Toole's theater, and in it Mr. Toole (as I then myself), George Shelton (as Tesman) and Miss Irene Vanbrugh (as Hedda) were delightful. In one scene Tesman was busy writing a review when Hedda entered, and the following dialogue took place:

Tesman (looking up)—Hedda (languidly)—I am not Tes. I am Hedda.
Tesman—Then, Hedda, is there a k in "Christianity?"
Hedda (very slowly and intensely)—There is—nothing—in—Christianity.
Tesman—Pancay!—London Pall Mall Gazette.

Fame a Wild Beast.

"Literary fame," said a well known author whose name a few years ago was in everybody's mouth, "is more easily caught than kept. He who has a reputation to maintain has a wild beast in his house which he must constantly feed or it will feed on him. He who writes in a modern language is but the suicide of his own fame, scribbling with sand what the next wave of time will obliterate. He gets a short respite, not a pardon, from oblivion."

Sign of an Egotist.

Toward the latter days of George D. Prentiss as the editor of the Louisville Journal a thief got into the editorial room one night and stole the dictionary. As soon as the loss was discovered Prentiss said to his amanuensis: "Go out and purchase another copy of the dictionary. A man who will attempt to edit a newspaper without an unabridged dictionary is an egotist, and I do not belong in that category."

Vindictive.

"Ah," sighed the young rhymester, "you care nothing for the trials of us poets."
"Probably not," replied the crusty editor, "but I'd like to be on the jury in just one trial."

Violet Toilet Vinegar.

Nothing is more essential on the toilet table than a good toilet vinegar, and an excellent one of violet consists of two ounces of extract of cassia, seven-eighths of an ounce of neroli bigarade, one and a half ounces tincture of orris root and one and three-eighths ounces triple essence of rose and one-half pint of white wine vinegar.

Could Not Walk Ten Yards Without Resting.

Mrs. D. Herkimer, Hall's Bridge, Ont., was Troubled with Weak Heart and Sleeplessness.

How many women are troubled with a weak heart? How many lie, night after night, trying to sleep, and can't? Perhaps you are one of them? If so, read what Mrs. Herkimer says. It may save you years of suffering if you take her advice.

"I am now enjoying the best of health, after having used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart, and was afraid to draw a long breath, for the pain it would cause me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. I cannot speak too highly of your Heart and Nerve Pills; they are the greatest pill I have ever used, and can recommend them to all sufferers."

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cents per box, or 8 boxes for $1.25. For sale by all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price.

Why Marriage Declines.

I do not think the state of matrimony is held in such high esteem as it was. Women are making themselves too cheap. They will go anywhere with their male acquaintances, and, as a rule, girls who associate intimately with a variety of men do not become the wives of any of those men.—Helen Mathers in Lamp.

Stratford, 4th Aug., 1893.

MESSRS. C. RICHARDS & CO. Gentlemen, — My neighbor's boy, 4 years old, fell into a tub of boiling water and got scalded fearfully. A few days later his legs swelled to three times their natural size and broke out in running sores. His parents could get nothing to help him till I recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT, which, after using two bottles, completely cured him, and I know of several other cases around here almost as remarkable, cured by the same Liniment, and I can truly say I never handled a medicine which has had as good a sale or given such universal satisfaction.
