"These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth"

I thought it hard that Christ should ask of me
To walk through life along a blood-marked way,
And thus it was, I shrank back, tremblingly,
Then paused, and bowed my head, and said Him, Nay!
But looking down I saw, with tear-dimmed eyes,
That all the blood-marks came from pierced feet,
At which I learned, with sad yet glad surprise,
That they were proofs of love, enduring, sweet;
Twas then, when I looked on Christ's dear face
And on His feet, I began to follow on;—
Since then, my thought of His great grace,
And fear of His marked ways is wholly gone.
