God's Restful Presence

BY CECELIA A. GARDINER

"My presence shall go with thee and I will give thee rest."

I will be with thee when the shadows lengthen,
When hope and joy have folded their bright wings,

When to the tempest tossed, the sad and weary,
No beacon light cheers and refreshment brings,

There is no gloom My presence will not brighten,
No road so rough but I will smooth for thee.

Thy shoulders cannot bear a load so heavy
But thou canst quickly roll it off on Me.

My presence will illumine the darkest midnight,
In all thy fitful tossings give thee rest;

With sweetest, gentlest, tenderest ministrations,
Will pluck the sting which rankles in thy breast.

I will be with thee when the grave is closing
O'er the loved form which thy fond heart held dear.

E'en when in the blackness all the heavens are frowning,
Glimpse thou'lt gain of skies serene and clear.

I will give ease from ills that now oppress thee;
A calm, a sweet, a trustful hope and rest;

A joy with which no stranger intermeddled
Shall have its sure abode within thy breast.

O weary soul, forlorn and heavy laden,
Come lay thy head upon My loving breast;

Come seal with Me a compact, true and lasting,
Assurance of My presence and My rest.
