

MY HYMN THIS WEEK.

LITTLE children love each other;
Never give each other pain;
If your brother speak in anger,
Answer not in wrath again.

MY LESSON STORY THIS WEEK.

Little Miss Brier came out of the ground;
She put out her horns and scratched everything 'round;
"I'll just try said she how bad I can be;
At pricking and scratching there's few can match me."

Little Miss Brier was looking one day
At her neighbour, the Violet, just over the way.
"I wonder, said she, that no one pets me
While all seem so glad little Violet to see."

A sober old linnet, who sat on a tree,
Heard the speech of the Brier, and thus answered he;
"Tis not that she's fair, for you may compare
In beauty with even Miss Violet there.

But Violet is always so pleasant and kind,
So gentle in manner, so humble in mind;
Even the worms at her feet she would never ill-treat,
And to everything and everybody is always so sweet."

MY QUESTIONS THIS WEEK.

1. Where did Paul and Barnabas go?
2. Why did they go to Jerusalem?
3. What took place there?
4. What is the Golden Text!

MY PRAYER THIS WEEK.

Oh God! make me patient and gentle and loving and kind,
at home, at school, at work, at play.
