The February number of "the North American Review" opens with an article by Senator Hoar on "The conduct of Business in Congress, which calls attention to detects in the present system of transacting business in the national legislature, and suggests improved methods. This is followed by a paper on "The Mysteries of American Railroad Accounting," by "an Accountant," showing how the most popular railway enterprises are conducted and urging an immediate revision of the laws bearing upon railway management. "A Statesman of the Colonial Era.", by General Richard Taylor, describes the career of George Mason, of Virginia, and attributes to that gentleman many sayings and writings that have hitherto been credited to other men. Hon. D. H. Chamberlain writes on "Reconstructin and the Negra," and presents the results of his experiences and observations while occupying the gubernatorial chair in South Carolina. "The Empire of the discontented." by a "Russian rule, and of the influences at work to overthrow the government. The author is a prominent leader of the insurrectionists. "The Scientific Work of the Howgate Expedition," by O. T. Sherman, of the scientific corps, gives a very full statement, and the only one that has been presented to the public, of the scientide results of the recent government preparatory expedition to the polar seas. "Sensationalism in the Pulpit," by Rev. Dr. Tayior, of the Broadway Tabernacie, New York, is a pungent criticism of the theatrical tendencies of certain preachers. The number closes with an article by Professor T. F. Crane on "Mediæval French Literature." reviewing a class with an article by Professor T. F. Crane on "Mediæval French Literature," reviewing a class books known to but few readers in this country. NEW PRIMERS

The Maritime PRIMERS and WALL CARDS, just issued are on an entirely new plan. The PRIMERS consisting of parts 1, and 2, are sold at 3 and 6 cents each respectively. They are handsomely printed with large type, profusely illustrated, and very durable. They are constructed in such a way as to assist the teacher in leading the child from a picture to the name of the thing which the picture represents.

The PRIMERS are accompanied by a Series of Wall Lesson Cards, 17 by 22 irches, reproducing in an enlarged form the introductory six pages of the First Primer. The constant use of these cards in conjunction with the Primers in the Schools is recommended. They are handsome and substantial and are varnished so that they can be cleaned. Price per set, 60 cents.

THE SIXTH READER, NEW EDITION

The Publishers of the MARITIME SERIES at first contemplated the issue of a Seventh Reader for advanced classes but acting on the advice of several experienced trachers of Nova Scotia, they determined to enlarge the SIXTH MARITIME READER in such a way as to supply the demand for a more advanced book, without putting parents and guardians to the expense of a separate volume. The New Edition of the Sixth Maritime Reader is now ready. It contains over a hundred pages of new matter of a class suited to advanced pupils. Besides many declamatory pieces of the highest order, there are sections desuited to advanced pupils. Desidues many decisamisory pieces of the nignest order, there are sections devoted to words difficult to spell, words frequently mis pronounced; prefixes, affixes and roots, and lessons in elecution. The arrangement of the new matter will not in any way interfere with the use of the first edition in classes which may already be supplied, as all the new selections are inserted at the end of the volume, and the paging of the first edition has not been disturbed in the second.
