

had not been misplaced. The boy developed into a true Christian man, and is at the present time at the head of one of the staunchest and most trusted firms in the city of London.

Boys keep your hearts up, and you will be sure to triumph over the greatest difficulties.

Begin Now:

A good many children begin to think very seriously when they come to the end of the year. They look back, count up the many wrong things they have done, and say, "Oh, we are sorry; we wish we had done better. When the new year comes we will begin all over anew."

Ah, we shouldn't wait till the new year comes. We should do right now. "Now is the accepted time." "Cease to do evil; learn to do well." God bids us to begin, not by-and-by, next week, next month, but now, at once.
