

A Magnificent Series of Pictures
for School Walls

:: The Britannia ::

Historical Pictures

The Building of Hadrian's Wall.	Charles I. Going to Execution.
King Alfred's First Sea Fight.	The Landing of William of Orange.
Harold's Last Stand at Hastings.	Wolfe Scaling the Heights of Abraham.
King John Sealing Magna Carta.	Nelson at Trafalgar.
Queen Philippa Saves the Burghesses of Calais.	Waterloo — The Struggle at Hougoumont.
The Wars of the Roses.
The Spanish Armada.

The Object of the series has been primarily to provide a set of pictures suitable for the decoration of the walls of home or school, while the system upon which the subjects have been selected enables them to be used to great advantage in teaching history, since each represents an episode in a series of great historical periods.

The Artists are Mr. R. CATON WOODVILLE and Mr. A. FORESTIER, both of them well known to readers of The Illustrated London News and other journals, and both to be relied upon for accuracy of detail.

The Process by which the pictures have been reproduced is the beautiful Rembrandt Process, which has lately been brought to a point of faithfulness and excellence meriting the term perfection.

Prices and Sizes. The plates are printed on fine art plate-paper, measuring 32 inches by 24 inches, inclusive of an adequate margin. Each picture is plate-marked, and can be framed without an extra mount.

The Price of each Picture is 2s. 6d. net, or post free, 3s. net.
