

Attractive and Useful Yuletide Gifts

When all is said and done the Christmas remembrance that is most appreciated by the housewife is something useful, something necessary for the household. And what is nicer or more useful than household linen? Another thing about household linen is that you need not worry about giving something that your friends already have because no matter how much linen they already have, they can always find room and use for more. Our showing includes beautiful Cluny lace pieces from France, cleverly worked Applique from Switzerland, dainty embroidered linens from Ireland and exquisite hand-drawn pieces from Japan. All are works of art and any would make a charming present.
