Pictures Are Not Always Truthful
SOME MAIL ORDER HOUSES FIND THEM VERY USEFUL IN THEIR BUSINESS—CAN "DOCTOR" PHOTOGRAPH Concerns Can Give Wrong Impressions With Illustrations While Sticking to Truth in Descriptions (Copyright.)

"Figures never lie," it has been claimed, but this is far from the truth. The defaulter who has "doctored" his books in such a way that he has escaped detection for years, knows that figures can be made to lie. The shrewd politician, who knows how to juggle statistics, knows that they can be made to tell a story that is far from the truth. But there is another medium of expression which is also supposed to be a stickler for truth, but which is a greater prevaricator than figures. That is a picture. A picture of any person or thing, supposedly, is an exact reproduction of the original, but this is frequently not a wild supposition. The photographer who did not make his picture "tell a little fib now and then" would soon go out of business.
