The Dolley At Home, which the Women's Auxiliary of All Saints Church, held at The Anchorage on Tuesday evening, was not at all a purely commercial undertaking. With a admission fee of only 25 cts., the purchaser of a ticket received a dolly; the right to enter into two competitions; some very excellent refreshments and also the opportunity of having a thoroughly good time. Mrs. M. Lee Street was the organizer of the At Home, and with Mrs. Fred Andrews and Miss Main, she received the guests.

Mrs. George Babbitt was doorkeeper and presented each new arrival with a magic number which corresponded with the number on some dolly. Naturally the next thing to attract the attention of the holder of such a number was the wonderful display of dollys. Only one variety of dolly was missing and that was the ugly variety. Every shape and size of dolly was there and each one was beautifully made. They were mounted on colored paper and shown to great advantage at a white screen.

The competitions were the old favorites, the pinning on of the donkey's tail, and the guessing of the number of beans in a bottle. The poor donkey had a worried expression which was hardly to be wondered at when he had a table set for the connection altogether. Mrs. Chas. Wallace placed it nearest to the correct spot and became the winner of a pretty table centre trimmed with Battenberg lace, presented by Miss Bessie Grimmer.

Mrs. Frank Kennedy was only four beans out in her estimate of the number contained in the bottle, and she was awarded the prize, a needlebook with a patriotic design on the cover, which Mrs. G. H. Suckney had written with the swill.

MY BIT

WHEN William Smithers (yet to be) climbs lightly to his granddaddy's case.

And grasps my whiskers white and hoary. Demanding to be told a story. He'll ask me, "Grandpa, were you one of those who bravely fought the Hun? And did they run away from you? And were you injured? Tell me so!" "My child," I'll say, "although this chest, in martial penology compressed, Yearned like the hungry tiger's for Unmeasured gouts of German gore; Through hours by hour I stood, 'on guard' Till every limb was iron hard, And staff instructors came in cabs, To gloat upon my points and jabs, And mark the narrow-freering glare With which I whirled through the air; Though with long practice I became An expert at the killing game, Destined to wade, or so they said, Through driven heads of German dead, And, bridle, see the Big Push through With private deeds of derring-do; I never, strange enough to say, Was present at the actual fray."

"Not fight?" the captious child will pour; "Why, what man you have been about?" And I shall have my answer set: "Dividing first from third class fat; Pressing at the clothing store; And scrubbing down the washhouse floor; Watching a thousand rations drawn, And moving on the Colonel
