

SCOTLAND YET

The Lowland Scots Regiments. Edited by Sir Herbert Maxwell, Bart. Edinburgh: Maclehose & Sons, 21s. net

In these days when every one is a student of war it may be said that out of the wreckage of our old beliefs and accepted faiths has emerged one solid truth—that in defence of a good cause the bravery of one man, or one regiment, or one army is only equalled by the bravery of another.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THERE will be sold at Public Auction at the Court House at Saint Andrews in the County of Charlotte, on Saturday, the 29th day of June next, at Two of the Clock, in the afternoon, all the right, title and interest in and to the following piece of parcel land and premises and the appurtenances, situate, lying and being at Seal Cove, in the aforesaid Parish of Grand Manan, and conveyed to Alma Ingersoll by Gertrude Macdonald, by deed bearing date the thirtieth day of June A. D. 1914, and recorded on the twenty-second day of August, in the same year, in Book No. 79, pages 501 and 502, of the Public Records of the County of Charlotte and Province of New Brunswick, as by reference will appear as follows:—

CHAPLAIN'S SERVICE Y. M. C. A.

The social, educational and religious work amongst the Overseas troops is carried on under the two establishments of the Chaplains' Service and the Y. M. C. A.

In the Chaplains' Service there are 275 of whom 140 are in France. Of these, 17 have received the Military Cross, one the D. S. O., and seven have been made Companions of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. This service is ably commanded by Col. Almond, C. M. G., formerly of Monteaup, who has been very successful in blending together the different denominations, and who has raised the whole service to a high state of efficiency.

The other Establishment, the Y. M. C. A. is under the efficient control of Colonel Birks, and has huts in all the training camps in England, and tents in France right up near to the support lines. These two establishments dovetail into one another in the carrying on of all their work. Most of the religious training, naturally, is done by the Chaplains. The work of education which is being organized in the Khaki University has been very largely originated and directed by College Professors in the Chaplains' Service.

On the other hand, the Y. M. C. A. supplies the institutions; organizes to a large extent the entertainment of the camp; provides its cinema films, lectures and concerts; and affords, through its canteens an opportunity for the men to secure some of the comforts of life.

Everywhere the chaplain and the Y. M. C. A. Secretary work hand in hand. As therefore, their objects are in common, it has been agreed that there should be two appeals to the people of Canada, but that all the social, religious and educational demands of the army should be merged in the campaign carried on under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.
